Sheriff Says Chief Should Run Police

Goerndt Is Given Backing From Lawmen In County

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos told the Sausalito Board of Review last night that things were very different in Sausalito five years ago when he was police chief.

He said, for example: "I never received any memorandums from our city manager. I was chief of police. He was city manager. All actions I took were my own. My decisions were mine," he added. He said the city manager handled budgets and the like.

Mountanos said when he went to work for Sausalito as a patrolman there was no city manager. He later served under Donald A. Duerr, who preceded the present manager, Charles A. Brown.

The sheriff said in his day officers frequently carried a screw driver to fix meters on the spot, they might change a flat tire on a police vehicle, and they kept oil in the city hall basement for cars.

Mountanos's testimony took up most of the evening at last night's fourth session of the hearing, which was requested by Howard Goerndt, who was fired as police chief Aug. 7 by Brown on charges mainly that Goerndt lacked leadership.

TO CONTINUE

The hearing will continue at 8 p.m. tomorrow in the city hall, Friday, and again next Thursday. No meetings can be set in the interim, chairman Robert M. Gunn explained, because either the hall is to be used or certain principals cannot appear.

On direct examination by Harry S. Wainwright, attorney for Goerndt along with James B. Leech, Mountanos said he had never seen a memorandum from Duerr to him while he was chief of police.

Cross-examining, Leland H. Jordan, attorney for Brown, showed a memorandum written by Mountanos to the city manager in which Mountanos recommended repriman d i n g Goerndt for private use of the telephone. Mountanos said he had written the memorandum, dated Aug. 15, 1958.

PHONE USE

One of the many charges against Goerndt by Brown is that officers have been allowed to use the police telephones for private use.

Mountanos told the board he has found Goerndt to be very cooperative with the sheriff's department, that Goerndt has done a fine job and that he, Mountanos, is "whole heartedly in agreement with his program."

"With proper manpower, I don't believe Howard Goerndt would be in this position this evening," the sheriff declared.

He added, "as chief of police I found it is more important to patrol the hills of Sausalito than to patrol the (downtown) streets and see what flag jumps up red on parking meters."

Mountanos expressed alarm, when questioned by Wainwright, as to ammunition being withheld because officers were not participating in target practice. He said he did not think withholding ammunition was a proper remedy if a few officers were not going to the firing range.

(Brown had notified Goerndt he would buy no more ammunition for the police department

11th Hour Suit Blocks Logging

U.S. Attorney Cecil Poole ordered a locked door opened late yesterday. Thereby saving several tall fir trees within the boundaries of the Point Reyes National Seashore.

Poole waited all day for arrival of a $298,500 federal treasury check from Washington, D.C. This was to be used to back condemnation of timber on the Inverness Ridge where lumbering had been held up last week by a temporary injunction from Marin Superior Court.

The check did not arrive. Yesterday afternoon, Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. of Marin Superior Court set aside the temporary injunction and ruled against issuing a preliminary restraining order.

Poole was forced to play his final card.

He filed a last-minute condemnation suit on the timber rights. It was 5 p.m. when he took this action, a half-hour after the Federal District Court clerk's office in San Francisco had closed. Poole ordered it re-opened to file the suit.

Donald Owens, owner of Owens Lumber Co. of Bodega Bay, said yesterday that the temporary injunction had forced the loss of eight "very valuable days. We could have cut about 800 trees, or approximately 500,000 board feet of lumber."

Owens Lumber was under contract to Trio Lumber Co. of Sebastopol, which had contracted for the timber rights on 3,100 acres from A. W. Sweet Lumber Co. of Oregon.

The timber is on property in the Bolema Palisades Inc., the Palamarin Ranch and the Boyd Stewart Ranch. Cutting had started on the Bolema Palisades property two weeks ago.

The temporary injunction was issued Oct. 21 at the request of Douglas Hertz of Bolema Palisades Inc.

State Aide's Profit In Car Sale Claimed

New Charge Is Refused At Hearing

I-J Special Report

SAN FRANCISCO—Lester H. Hingsbergen of San Rafael, ousted from his post as chief investigator for the State Department of Motor Vehicles, used his position to pocket a profit in getting a car at a low price for a friend, according to testimony in a state personnel board hearing today.

But Hingsbergen proved to be a modest middleman, keeping only $65 in the transaction.

Hingsbergen took the stand this morning for the first time since his hearing opened Monday. He became angry at times under questioning by Leonard L. Sperry, deputy state attorney general.

TELLS OF SICKNESS

Hingsbergen said he was sick last June 26 when he was ordered to appear at a personnel hearing in Los Angeles involving charges against a fellow chief investigator, Leo Genser of Los Angeles.

Hingsbergen said he told his superior, Tom M. Bright, head of the department, that he became ill during a trip to Europe a month earlier.

Shown expense accounts from 1959 through March, 1963, by Sperry, Hingsbergen admitted they were his personal accounts and added, "Sometimes I might ask for a little loan like all of us do."

Hingsbergen also admitted that certain checks paid to San Francisco automobile dealers were his. In earlier testimony today a San Francisco women's wear wholesaler, Julian Ledy, said he "was in the market for a new car early this year, and Mr. Hingsbergen told me maybe I can get one for you for less than you can."

CAR SUPPLIER

Ledy said he gave Hingsbergen a check for $4,104 for payment for a new Buick sedan. He later received a check from Hingsbergen for $150, with Hingsbergen commenting that there were "no electric windows in the car, so I owe you some money."

Charles J. Rogers, salesmanager of Spencer Buick Co. in San Francisco, who supplied the car for Ledy, said the auto-

MONARDO CLAIMS TAXES TOO HIGH

Says Rate Might Have Been 25 Cents Less If Almcrants Had Been Tending To Business

Mill Valley's city tax rate might have been 25 cents lower for the current fiscal year had City Mgr. A. E. Almcrants been tending to his business, City Councilman George D. Monardo charged today.

Monardo said the tax rate of $2.30 per $100 assessed valuation, "could very probably have been lowered even to $2.05."

Almcrants, city manager for 12 years, resigned Oct. 21, his resignation to become effective not before Dec. 31. The city council began interviewing prospective candidates for the job last Saturday and has further interviews scheduled this week.

"I have nothing to say at this time," Almcrants said today. "I've got a job to do. I've got an agenda to get out for next Monday's council meeting. I don't see how he (Monardo) can write all this and administer a hospital." (Monardo is administrator of Franklin Hospital in San Francisco.)

Monardo estimated the city has lost $2,250 in the past two years from interest it might have earned on investments had sanitary districts outside city limits been billed on time for city services.

He further estimated the city has lost $1,000 in the last six months on the retirement system since the council asked that the $91,000 retirement fund be invested in insured savings and loans at 4.85 per cent return. "The policy (of the council) was not complied with until October and then only $50,000 was invested," Monardo claimed.

A city manager must "prudently invest the city's and retirement system's cash reserves . . . thereby providing the taxpayer with some relief from increased taxes," declared Monardo.

"We now find from our audit that had a statement of changes in fund balances on June 30, 1963, been provided as requested and hence been available to the council at its last budget session when the tax rate was set at $2.30, the tax rate definitely would not have been $2.30 but $2.19 and conceivably less.

"We also find that, had the council received at its last budget session, as requested of the city manager, a statement of actual revenues for the year ended June 30, 1963, and a

U.S. Demands Ouster Of Soviet Envoys

The U.S. delegation made the demand in a note sent to the Soviet delegation a day after two of the three were picked up with a New Jersey executive of a firm doing secret projects for the U.S. government.

The three men who were ordered out of the country were Gleb A. Pavlov, attache in the Soviet delegation; Yugi A. Romashin, third secretary, and Vladimir I. Olenev, described merely as a member of the delegation.

A U.S. delegation source, announcing the sending of the note, said:

"We are asking for their immediate departure."

He said that "immediate" usually means 48 hours.

FBI agents said that seven months of around-the-clock work resulted in arrests Tuesday night of John William Butenko, 38, of Orange, N.J., and Igor A. Ivanov, New York City, a chauffeur for the Soviet trading agency Amtorg.

Kennedys Lease Big Summer Home

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — President and Mrs. John F. Kennedy have leased a big summer home in Newport to occupy next August and September, it was announced today.

The estate facing Narragansett Bay is known as Annandale Farm and is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Barclay Douglas.

Housewives Can Relax For Awhile —Price Boosts Won't Hit Budget

WASHINGTON (AP) — Housewives, relax — for the time being anyway.

The government's economists see no danger that the autumn outbreak of price boosts in a dozen industries will unbalance the family budget.

Increases on items ranging from steel and aluminum to carpets and black pepper—was followed—perhaps by coincidence—by revival of a New York federal grand jury probe into steel-pricing policies.

Coincidental or not, that Justice Department move underscored President John F. Kennedy's warning that Uncle Sam is "Watching with concern" any price trend that might start an inflationary spiral.

Kennedy's Consumer Advisory Council, set up last year to give consumers a lobby in Washington, announced a special study of recent increases in steel, electrical equipment, aluminum and chemicals.

The council said it wants to find out whether the increases "appear to be justified from the consumer point of view."

Arnold E. Chase, price chief for the Bureau of Labor Statistics, told an interviewer:

"The wholesale price index for October may show a decline instead of an increase."

The increase on several steel products, even if passed all along the line to the consumer will be like those of last spring. Chase predicted: a few dollars on a car or tractor, a few dimes on a washer or refrigerator, but no measurable impact on the over-all cost of living.

Fairfax Boy, 8, Faces Anti-Rabies Shots Treatment

Jimmy McCann, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael McCann, 40 Madrone Road, Fairfax, will have to face the dog bite vaccination series if the dog that bit him last Thursday is not located.

Jimmy was bitten while waiting for the school bus in downtown Fairfax last Thursday morning. The skin on his hand was broken by a light brown, short haired dog that looks like a cross between a Pomeranian and Pekingese.

Jimmy's anti-rabies shots will have to start next Thursday if the dog cannot be located for observation. Anyone with information may call the McCann home.

Debt Limit Hike Measure Gains

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee approved today a bill that would raise the 309-billion-dollar national debt ceiling to 315 billion dollars through June 29.

By then, Congress would have to reconsider the whole issue of the government borrowing limit — as it has already three times this year.

The House will vote on the bill next week.

U.S. Cost Of Living Remains Unchanged For September

WASHINGTON (AP) — The cost of living remained unchanged in September with fluctuating prices of selected items balancing off, the Labor Department said today.

Food prices fell six-tenths of 1 per cent from August.

Transportation costs also eased, largely because of gasoline price wars in the Midwest and season-end lower prices for new cars of the 1963 models.

On the other hand, clothing prices were up slightly and there was a 1.9 per cent increase in the cost of such services as auto insurance, medical services, home repairs, laundry and dry cleaning.

The department's price index remained for the second straight month at 107.1. This means that selected items which cost $10 in the 1957-59 base period now cost $10.71.

In detailing the food price drop the department's Bureau of Labor Statistics said largely seasonable lower prices of fresh fruits and vegetables more than offset a seasonal egg price increase.

Engineer, Russian Nabbed As Spies

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — FBI agents have capped seven months of around-the-clock work with the arrests of an American electronics engineer, cleared to handle top secret material, and a Russian chauffeur on espionage charges.

They were arrested last night after a rendezvous near an old stone railroad station in Englewood.

Two Russian diplomats serving with the Soviet mission to the United Nations in New York City also were apprehended by the FBI but they were released because of their diplomatic immunity.

Seized in the Russians' car were a brief case that contained information about a secret Air Force contract and a tiny document camera designed to operate from the car's cigarette lighter.

The accused spies, charged early today with "delivering to a foreign government information relating to the national defense of the United States," are John William Butenko, 38, of Orange, and Igor A. Ivanov, 33, of New York City.

Butenko, a bachelor of Russian parentage, is a $14,700-a-year control administrator for the International Electric Corp: of Paramus.

Ivanov, married and father of a 6-year-old daughter, was a chauffeur for AMTORG, a Soviet government-sponsored agency that handles U.S.-Russian trade relations. He came to this country in March 1962.

The two Russian diplomats were Yuri A. Romashin, 38, third secretary of the Soviet U.N. mission and Gleb A. Pavlov, 39, an attache of the mission.

Ford Sales Set Record But Profits In Decline

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. set a nine months' sales record this year, but its profit picture wasn't as rosy as that of Chrysler or General Motors.

Yesterday Ford became the last of the nation's three biggest auto makers to file its financial report for the first three-quarters of 1963.

G.M. in its third-quarter report Monday said its profits through September exceeded a billion dollars. Chrysler reported more than 100 million dollars in the same period.

Ford sales for the first nine months this year were almost 6.2 billion dollars with profits of 346 million dollars or $3.14 a share. The previous record for a nine-month period was in 1962 when sales were about 5.8 billion dollars with profits of 350 million dollars or $3.18 a share.

There was no comment on the decline in profits in the report to Ford shareholders, which was signed by Henry Ford II.

Bishops Vote To Assume Larger Role In Church

VATICAN CITY (UPI)—Roman Catholic bishops voted overwhelmingly today to accept Pope Paul VI's invitation to assume a larger role in the government of the church.

In balloting at the Ecumenical Council, the Bishops affirmed a theological doctrine asserting that bishops "by divine right" share with the pope "full and supreme authority over the universal church."

In another important vote today, the council fathers approved restoration of the ancient order of deacons. The deacons will be ordained clergymen performing some but not all of the duties of priests.

If the bishops of a country see fit, the deacons may be allowed to marry instead of observing clerical celibacy.

New England Drought Eases; Other Areas Still Suffer

CHICAGO (AP) — Rain and snow eased drought conditions and forest fire hazards in sections of New England today but not much relief was reported in other parts of the dry belt from the Southern Plains to New York State.

Heavy rains along the edges of hurricane Ginny splashed southeastern New England yesterday as the storm moved into Nova Scotia. Moderate to heavy snow fell in central and northern Maine, with 13 inches in Greenville and nearly a foot in Houlton and Caribou. Snow flurries fell throughout New England, including Boston. More than two and one-half inches of rain doused Nantucket, Mass.

Yesterday's rain belt extended along the Atlantic Coast from South Carolina into New England. Light rain dampened scattered sections in the Great Lakes region and southeastward to the Appalachians, but amounts were too light to break the prolonged dry spell.

Snow flurries flecked the area of Bluefield, straddling the Virginia-West Virginia line.

In New York State, 12 new fires were reported with a total of blazes in October. Strong winds in some woodland areas increased the fire danger. State forests have been closed and outdoor burning banned since Oct. 13.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Youth Admits Texas Slaying

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP)—A youthful ex-convict has admitted killing Mrs. Fred Turner, wife of a wealthy oilman and racehorse owner. She was bludgeoned yesterday during a burglary attempt in the family's palatial home.

Mrs. Turner

Police said James L. Marion, 22, was charged with murder and jailed. He told newsmen last night: "I don't want to talk."

Mrs. Turner, 66, was so badly beaten about the face that it was first thought she had been shot.

Marion fled after slugging a daughter of the slain woman. Officers pulled him from an attic hiding place in a house two blocks distant a bit later and he admitted the killing.

Marion

A wall safe in a closet was opened and emptied, but still contained a fortune in diamonds she had battled to save.

Marion said he broke through her bedroom door, that she fired a shot at him and he managed to get the gun away. He put it down and she tried to shoot again, then he beat her to death.

Hollywood Mourns Adolph Menjou

Menjou

The veteran actor, whose career spanned more than 50 years and over 200 films, died of chronic hepatitis yesterday at his Beverly Hills home. He was 73.

Menjou's third wife, the former Verree Teasdale, and their adopted son, Peter, 27, were at his side.

A year ago Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk named Menjou as a member of the John Birch Society. Menjou said he had not belonged for two years, but added that he still believed in the society's principles.

Welles Doesn't Regret Scare Broadcast

LONDON (AP)—Orson Welles choked back a chuckle and said he has not the slightest regret for his Martian invasion radio drama that panicked Americans 25 years ago tonight.

Six million Americans heard Welles' broadcast of "The War of the Worlds."

Red Guerrillas Smash Crack Viet Troops

Three Americans Listed As Missing As Losses Heavy

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Communist guerrillas smashed a crack South Vietnamese task force yesterday and probably captured the three U.S. Army advisers with the 120-man task force.

The three Americans, listed as missing, were two officers and an enlisted medic. Stragglers returning from the rout said both officers had been wounded in the fight.

TOO LATE

A second government force of about 200 men, operating only a few thousand yards away, learned of the battle too late to help, U.S. authorities said Communist radio jammers knocked out the channels on all local military radios.

The operation cost the Vietnamese special forces an estimated 20 killed, 30 wounded and 12 missing and presumed captured. Heavy weapons lost included a 60mm mortar. Viet Cong losses were unknown.

"The day ended with the enemy in command of the field," a high-ranking American officer said.

NO NAMES

Names of the missing Americans were not announced.

The U.S. casualty list rose to four late yesterday when the Air Force pilot of a light spotting plane was hit by machine gun fire. The pilot flew back to his base, however.

Yesterday's fight was in the same area 140 miles southwest of Saigon where another government unit took a beating Oct. 19.

All day today, patrols and spotting planes combed the area where the fight took place but made no contact with the guerrillas. Presumably they slipped away in small groups on Sampans.

500 TROOPS

According to an intelligence estimate, the Viet Cong probably had about 500 troops in the area at one time.

The Viet Cong had been advertising for several weeks that it planned a major attack against Tan Phu, the base of the Vietnamese special forces that took part in the fight.

Military officials said about 300 Vietnamese began moving north against a reported Viet Cong concentration Monday night.

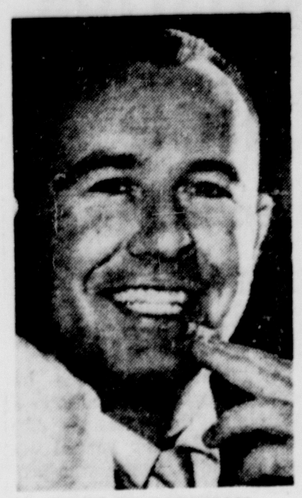
Lawmaker Ready To Fight Another Over 'Pinko' Label

But Rematch For Texans Seems Unlikely



REP. ED FOREMAN

REP. HENRY GONZALEZ
He'd start fight again

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Henry Gonzalez is ready to fight, either "Marquis of Queensberry rules or alley fight rules." But his intended opponent, Rep. Ed Foreman, says "as far as I'm concerned it's over with."

So no rematch of yesterday's one-punch fight just off the floor of the House of Representatives is in prospect.

Gonzalez and Foreman are both Texans. Foreman is 29 and husky. He's a Republican who espouses conservative causes. Gonzalez is 47 and a Democrat who espouses liberal causes.

Foreman said, "I didn't call Gonzalez a pinko or a Communist. What I did say was that his ultra-liberal leftwing voting record was a disservice to the Constitution of the United States and furthers the Socialist-Communist cause."

Gonzalez was angered by a news story that quoted Foreman as calling him a pinko, and confronted his fellow Texan yesterday on the House floor.

What happened next is in some dispute, but in the speaker's lobby just outside the House chamber Gonzalez gave Foreman a single punch on the shoulder.

"I'd still like to have it out with him man to man, but he's a Jote—that's Spanish for a yellow-livered sissy," Gonzalez said.

Foreman, discussing the incident later in his office, said "I played four years of college football. I'm 6-feet-4 and 200 pounds and I exercise regularly."

Gonzalez said he weighed in at 174½.

FACES IN A WITCHING WINDOW

Windows of stores in San Rafael's Montecito Shopping Center had a new look today—A Halloween look. Montecito merchants, who'd rather have Halloween paintings on the glass than whatever else might be put there tomorrow night, invited Camp Fire Girls to participate in a window decorating contest. Missie Sherman (left) and Beverly Duerr, both 12, team up here to decorate the Bank of America's window. Cash awards for best window painting will be announced tomorrow.

1,000 STILL HOLD OUT AT QUENTIN

Aide Predicts Prison Back To Normal Tomorrow After Folsom Sympathy Strike

Cell-by-cell interviews continued through today as in the aftermath of a sympathy strike of the work force at San Quentin Prison Monday.

Associate Warden W. D. Achuff said prison officers 1,000 hold-outs to interview. In most cases, after each interview the prisoner returned to his job.

Achuff predicted that things would be back to normal tomorrow.

An impromptu picket line of 50 to 60 jeering prisoners Monday morning touched off the strike. But by evening Monday over half of the 4,000 work force was back on the job.

Yesterday evening there were only the 1,000 hold outs.

Monday evening, 200 to 300 tough prisoners in Section B of the south cell block staged a demonstration from 6:30 to 9 p.m., setting mattresses and papers on fire and yelling and screaming.

Achuff said such demonstrations in this section are not too uncommon, but this was louder than usual.

It, like the strike, was in sympathy for prisoners at Folsom Prison who struck for higher pay and lighter sentences, Achuff said.

The prisoners at Folsom were back at their jobs yesterday. This was after some ring leaders had been either isolated or transferred to other prisons.

Achuff said there appeared to be no ring leaders in Monday's impromptu strike at San Quentin.

Oxygen Plan On Moon Outlined

AZUSA (AP) — A way of extracting oxygen from rocks on the moon was outlined today as Aerojet General Corp. opened a new research laboratory.

The study, financed by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, will be conducted in the firm's 125-acre Von Karman Center, named for the late Dr. Theodore Von Karman, rocket pioneer and one of the corporation's founders.

Dr. Sanders D. Rosenberg, program manager, said the new process eventually could supply both oxygen and water for a manned lunar base. First units would be carried to the moon in a Saturn rocket like that being built to boost the three-man Apollo spacecraft.

Kenneth Montgomery (left), David Deal and "witch" Mrs. Thomas Ovens examine model of a "spook house" which will be erected full size in the San Rafael Recreation Center at 37 Union Street for a city recreation department Halloween party from 7 to 9 p.m. tomorrow. The party will be for primary grade children and their parents only. Admission will be by donation to the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund.

Fallout Kept From Body By Petrolatum Gauze

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Simple petrolatum gauze dressings on burns and other wounds can prevent radioactive fallout products from entering the body, say two Philadelphia surgeons.

They reported results of studies with more than 1,000 rats at today's session of the 49th clinical congress, American College of Surgeons.

Radioisotopes such as those that would exist after a nuclear bomb blast apparently do not cross intact skin, said Drs. W. William Salak and John M. Howard of Hahnemann Medical College, Philadelphia.

But their studies indicate that burns and open wounds provide wide open avenues for the dangerous isotopes to enter the body, they reported.

When wounded and burned rats were exposed to standard solutions of radioisotopes, absorption was highest 24 hours after injury, Dr. Salak related. Absorption decreased as the wounds healed.

Of a variety of protective dressings tested, petrolatum gauze proved the most effective, preventing about 98 per cent of absorption, the surgeon reported.

In another report, pumping fresh blood through newly dead bodies to preserve organs for leisurely removal and transplant to living persons was described by a group of Denver surgeons.

The Denver doctors said they had used the technique to obtain two kidneys and two livers for transplant.

One liver graft functioned for 22 days until the patient died from an artery blockage, one kidney graft failed after two weeks, and the other two organs never functioned, the surgeons said.

They reported better results with dogs. Postoperative survival of 11 dogs with kidney grafts from perfused cadavers ranged up to 47 days, they said. And seven of the animals died of pneumonia rather than rejection of the foreign kidney.

Authors of the paper were Drs. T. L. Marchioro, William R. Waddell and Thomas E. Starzl of the University of Colorado Medical School and the Denver Veterans Administration Hospital.

More than 9,000 surgeons were on hand for the opening of the annual congress Monday. Officials said the delegates were expected to number more than 11,000 before the meeting ends Friday. The college, which has members in 79 nations, is celebrating its 50th anniversary.

Woman Cited For Failing To Set Brake

A San Rafael garage firm secretary was cited for failing to set her emergency brake properly after she was pinned between her runaway station wagon and another car in Lagunitas Monday night.

The crash at 6:45 p.m., which destroyed her car after it tumbled into a ravine, slightly injured Mrs. Phyllis Leah Maloney, 23, of 197 Central Avenue, Woodacre, and her son, Timothy, eight months. They were treated at Marin General Hospital.

Mrs. Maloney told California Highway Patrolman A. W. Krebs she was driving south on Cintura Avenue, one-third mile north of Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, when her car began smoking.

She stopped to investigate and the car, with its engine still running, rolled downhill into the path of a northbound car driven by Richard C. Hall, of Cintura Road, Lagunitas. As the cars collided, Mrs. Maloney was caught between them but escaped with bruises. Her baby, in the car suffered a cut mouth.

Strep Infections Top Diseases

Twenty-two cases of streptococcic infections topped the list of communicable diseases reported to the Marin County Health Department last week.

There were also seven cases of mumps, two cases each of gonorrhea and syphilis and one case of salmonella.

One case of shigella, a food infection, and one case of an amebiasis carrier were reported. Amebiasis is a form of amebic dysentary.

12 Arrested In $10-Million Dope Ring

CHICAGO (AP) — Twelve persons were arrested last night, cracking what federal investigators said was a 10-million-dollar per year narcotics ring which controlled 80 per cent of the dope traffic in Chicago.

Among those arrested was a reputed henchman of the Chicago Cosa Nostra "family," Americo (Pete) DePietto.

Charles G. Ward, chief of the Chicago office of the Federal Narcotics Bureau, said 35 ounces of heroin estimated at $17,500 was seized in the arrests.

Ward said the arrests, which he described as the most important narcotics seizures in Chicago history, came after a federal grand jury returned two suppressed indictments naming 41 persons on narcotics violations.

Ward said the ring controlled by Cosa Nostra had raked in more than 30 million dollars in narcotics sales since 1960.

Night Hearing Set On Tiburon

The Marin County Board of Supervisors will give Tiburon residents a chance to air their views on incorporation at a night hearing.

The board yesterday set for 8 p.m. Dec. 5 the first hearing on the proposed incorporation. It will be held in the supervisors' chambers in the Civic Center.

Discussions of boundary lines are expected to feature the hearing. The City of Belvedere seeks to annex part of the area shown within the proposed incorporation in maps on file with the county. The supervisors have the authority to delete properties from the incorporation area or add others before the proposal is placed before the people for a vote.

Kennedy's Press Conference On Air

NEW YORK (AP) — The major networks will broadcast President John F. Kennedy's news conference live on radio tomorrow and later on television via tape.

American Broadcasting Co., National Broadcasting Co., Columbia Broadcasting System and the Mutual Network will broadcast the conference on radio at 4 p.m. (EST).

CBS and NBC television coverage will be at 4:30 p.m. and ABC's will be at 5 p.m.

Caught By Accident

NORFOLK, Va., (UPI)—Policeman A. L. Lambdin, running after a motorist who had fled from his car when stopped for a traffic violation, tripped on the street Monday and fell with a jolt that discharged his pistol. The bullet wounded the fleeing man in the heel and he was captured a short time later.

California has 72 public junior colleges, serving an enrollment of approximately 430,000.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN A NATION SPENDS MORE ON GAMBLING THAN IT SPENDS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION?

If you can find any Romans around, ask them. They lived pretty high on the hog in their day. That is, until some serious-minded neighbors from up North moved in. The rest is ancient history.

You'd think their fate would have taught us a lesson.

Yet today we Americans spend twenty billion dollars a year for legalized gambling, while we spend a niggardly four-and-a-half billion for higher education. Think of it! Over four times as much! We also spend six-and-a-half billion dollars a year for tobacco, nine billion dollars for alcoholic beverages, and billions more on other non-essentials.

Can't we read the handwriting on the wall?

Our very survival depends on the ability of our colleges and universities to continue to turn out thinking men and women. Yet today many of these fine institutions are hard put to make ends meet. Faculty salaries, generally, are so low that qualified teachers are leaving the campus in alarming numbers for better-paying jobs elsewhere. In the face of this frightening trend, experts estimate that by 1970 college applications will have doubled.

If we are to keep our place among the leading nations of the world, we must do something about this grim situation before it is too late. The tuition usually paid by a college student covers less than half the actual cost of his education. The balance must somehow be made up by the institution. To meet this deficit even the most heavily endowed colleges and universities have to depend upon the generosity of alumni and public spirited citizens. In other words, they depend upon you.

For the sake of our country and our children, won't you do your part? Support the college of your choice today. Help it to prepare to meet the challenge of tomorrow. The rewards will be greater than you think.

It's important for you to know what the impending college crisis means to you. Write for a free booklet to HIGHER EDUCATION, Box 36, Times Square Station, New York 36, N.Y.

Hearing Set Tomorrow On Dumping Sewage

A public hearing will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. on a proposed county ordinance to regulate mooring vessels and prohibit dumping of garbage and sewage into waterways.

The hearing will be held by the Marin County Board of Supervisors on the third floor of the Civic Center.

At 10:30 a.m., the supervisors are scheduled to discuss Richardson Bay and hear a report from the Saucelito Canal dredging finance committee on a proposed assessment district for dredging the bay.

This will be followed by a hearing on the application of Allan H. Beckwith to dredge and fill the north part of Richardson Bay east of Strawberry Peninsula. The Mill Valley School District and Strawberry Recreation District are opposing the project on grounds it would interfere with public rights of navigation and destroy the present shoreline area.

Last item on the agenda for the special meeting is a discussion by the supervisors of methods of preparing the board agenda to streamline routine procedure and concentrate on policy matters.

VEHICLES

mobile was an "executive car" used for a short time by the dealer before being sold.

He said it was obtained from the General Motors Buick Division distributor in Burlingame and sold to Hingsbergen for $3,889—or $65 less than it wound up costing Ledy.

Sperry insisted that Hingsbergen was obviously selling "illegally for a profit." But state personnel board hearing officer Robert L. Hill refused to admit new charges into the hearing.

"Hingsbergen is not charged here with selling at a profit," Hill said. "The incompatibility charge against him refers only to getting a car at a low price. It's a little late in the game to bring up such other specific charges as selling for a profit."

Hill added that it was not unusual for persons procuring cars at discount to "sell them at a profit."

James Martin MacInnis, attorney for Hingsbergen said he expected to begin calling defense witnesses tomorrow.

A special agent for the State Criminal Investigation and Identification Bureau testified that Hingsbergen met with Genser and William P. Scanlans, chief motor vehicle department investigator from Sacramento, in Napa for three days in 1959 to coach them for a state civil service examination for the position of department investigator.

Fred Franke, the special agent, said Scanlans told him he was ordered by A. J. Veglia, former registrar of vehicles, to "get together with Hingsbergen and Genser and coach them for the examination."

Yesterday Sterling E. Colthurst, who like Hingsbergen lives in the Glenwood district of San Rafael, was among department officials who received plants allegedly taken from Golden Gate Park in San Francisco.

Stan Wilsey of 110 Toyon Drive, Fairfax, a Fairfax city councilman, said he and an unnamed Golden Gate Park gardener collected the plants and took them to Veglia's home in Sacramento where they transplanted them and did landscaping jobs — on the state's time. Wilsey is an assistant investigator.

All-Points Bulletin Is Sent Out For Missing Husband

San Rafael police have sent out an all-points bulletin for Carl Irving Hoffman, 22, of 855 Francisco Boulevard, reported missing since Saturday.

His wife, 17-year-old Wanda Rene Hoffman, told police Monday that her husband had gone to Stinson Beach Saturday morning and had not returned.

Police reported that Hoffman had told acquaintances that he was going to Onalaska, Wis., to visit his sick father, but his wife said she knew nothing of this proposed trip.

Mrs. Hoffman left San Rafael yesterday to stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Floyd Heagy, in East Valley, Skamokawa, Wash.

99th Anniversary For Nevada Tomorrow

CARSON CITY (AP) — More than 30,000 people are expected to throng into this capital city tomorrow to observe the 99th anniversary of Nevada's admission into the Union.

More than 200 units will participate in the three-hour Nevada Day parade, officials said.

Radio Stolen

Theft of a $45 transistor radio from a car parked in a carport at 1825 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, was reported to San Rafael police Monday by Ronald Wayne Tillett of the Presidio of San Francisco. Tillett said the radio was stolen between 8 and 11:30 p.m. Sunday.

MONARDO

statement of actual expenditures plus a statement of estimated revenues for the fiscal year 1963-64 based on council policy increasing fees, again, the tax rate definitely would have been lowered.

"It was only after the tax rate had been set at the time required by law and after the appropriated expenditures for the fiscal year 1963-64 had been fixed at $920,130 that the council learned too late that the estimated city revenue for the fiscal year 1963-64 was in fact $948,505. If this estimate is correct, then the tax rate, again, could very probably have been lowered even to $2.05."

(The tax rate last year was $1.98 per $100 assessed valuation. For 1961-62 it was $2.02; for 1960-61, $1.86; for 1959-60, $2.09; for 1958-59, $2.02; for 1957-58, $1.95; for 1956-57 and again 1957-58, $2.07. Almcrants has been city manager since 1951.)

"Sound, progressive, responsible city management saves tax dollars," said Monardo. "It makes the volunteer efforts of our councilmen worth while. It insures safety of public funds. It contributes to employee morale and public service. And, it avoids the kind of personality Mill Valley has recently experienced."

Monardo said that in selecting a new city manager, the four-man majority of the council will give these areas deep concern: Betterment of employer-employee relations, comprehensive and successful budget control, an adequate and timely method for follow-through, productive, conservative and timely investment of public funds, and accurate and adequate financial reporting.

'Screen Tests' For Teen-Age Girls Probed

Sheriff's officers are investigating a "free screen test" operation which operated from a house trailer for four days near Mill Valley.

Juvenile officer Harvey Teague said today the owner of the business, Jack L. Jarman of Hollywood, has left the county after being told he needed a solicitor's license to operate. Teague said the man was inviting teen-aged girls into the trailer to make recordings and have their pictures taken.

Teague added that the passage the girls read for the recordings, a selection by Max Shulman, was suggestive when read out of context. He said Jarman claimed the film and recording were sent to a research foundation in Los Angeles, but said he didn't know the purpose.

The business, called On Camera, also offered each customer a photograph and recording of herself for $2.50.

Countywide Library Meeting Tomorrow

Branch library assistants from throughout the county will meet at the new county library in the Civic Center at 10 a.m. tomorrow at invitation of County Librarian Virginia Keating.

"We shall discuss plans and programs for library activity throughout the county," said Mrs. Keating. "This is the first countywide library meeting in our new quarters."

Novato Names Acting Chief For Police

ROBERT DI GRAZIA
Will be "acting"

Sgt. Robert Di Grazia, senior officer of the Novato Police Department, was appointed acting police chief last night by the city council.

Roy McLaren, the city's first police chief, leaves tomorrow for Washington, D.C., to take a position with the International Assn. of Chiefs of Police.

The council gave Di Grazia an increase in salary from $583 per month to $675 per month during the time that he is acting chief.

City Administrator J. Julien Baget reported that Griffenhagen-Kroeger Inc. of San Francisco, the firm hired to select candidates for police chief, expected to have 70 applicants to take the written examination on Nov. 4.

After the written tests are graded, the firm will conduct oral examinations before making its recommendations. From that list the city council must select the new chief.

Acting Mayor John Angeloni asked Baget why he had not filled two police positions authorized in the current budget.

"I have been waiting on the new salary schedule and personnel ordinance," said the city administrator.

"Couldn't you hire two men from the old list?" Angeloni asked.

Baget then said he would either hire from that list or start recruiting procedures.

Teacher Goes Wild In Sausalito

Chilled, but apparently warmed by an inner spirit, a school teacher yesterday reportedly broke two picture windows in a Sausalito friend's home, "tossed ornaments around," turned the hi-fi up high, and then jumped in the swimming pool wearing only her scanties.

Micheline Berenholc, 24, of 66 Lower Crescent Avenue, was booked at 2:35 p.m. in county jail on charges of disturbing the peace, outraging public decency and destruction of property. She paid $660 bail and was to appear late today in Municipal Court.

Sgt. David Cooper, acting police chief, said he got a telephone call from a woman on Wray Avenue in Sausalito's quiet hillside area that a woman was "walking around with only a brassiere and breaking windows" at the home of Claude Ganz of 33 Wray.

"When I arrived," Cooper said, "I found glass in the street and the hi-fi playing at its highest peak. Two plate glass windows had been shattered in the living room, a glass top of a dining table broken, and ornaments thrown around in the home."

Cooper turned off the radio, and went into the back yard. And there he found Miss Berenholc swimming in Ganz's pool with nothing on but her panties."

Lucas Valley Telephone Rates Ordered Down

Homeowners in the new Eichler addition in Lucas Valley will pay the same telephone rates as homeowners in San Rafael hereafter, the California Public Utilities Commission ruled in San Francisco yesterday.

The ruling will bring a total yearly saving of $1,435 to 122 customers in the new tract. Previously, the base rate was set on a mileage basis, explained Gordon Davenport, district manager for Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co.

GOERNDT

until Goerndt adopted a mandatory program of small arms practice.)

Gunn excused police chiefs Dan Terzich of Mill Valley and William Woodington of Belvedere, as well as Donald E. Midyett, district attorney's special investigator, at about 11 p.m., saying there was no time to hear them last night.

Witnesses for Goerndt who testified before Mountanos were Edward J. Spitzley, supervising special investigator for the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control; District Atty. Roger P. Garety, Police Chief Raymond R. Buchignani of San Anselmo, and Police Chief James Orr of Fairfax.

Spitzley, of Santa Rosa, said he has known Goerndt since about June, 1960, and got from Goerndt "the same kind of help as I received from other agencies in the district." He has had 30 to 40 personal dealings with Goerndt relating to licenses, said Spitzley, and "he has always cooperated."

Garety said he has known Goerndt 12 years and "I have been very favorably impressed with some of Chief Goerndt's officers. In my dealings they have been responsive and reports are up to par. I would say the relationship has been a good one."

He added that Goerndt has impressed him as "a hard working, conscientious law enforcement officer."

Buchignani testified he has hired three police from the Sausalito police department during Goerndt's time as chief, the most recent one last year. The three men, one now a sergeant, "are fine policemen," the chief said. He said he has known Goerndt seven or eight years, found him "very helpful" and a "capable law enforcement man."

Orr said he served on an oral board with Goerndt to select a San Anselmo police officer. "I have never heard anything detrimental to his character or his job as chief," Orr said.

Orr said he does not object to an officer on duty using the police phone to call home, but long distance calls are another matter. He said he prohibits an officer from duty with alcohol on breath, has a mandatory firearms program, but has no rule regarding acceptance of gratuities. He said officers pay for all meals but that he, in the past 18 months, has accepted a cup of coffee on two occasions.

Wainwright asked Mountanos regarding the role of police chief: "If the city manager suggested John Jones should go to training school and you thought John Smith should go, who would go?"

"Smith," said Mountanos.

On cross-examination by Jordan, Mountanos said he did not recall how selection was made to send officers to training school. He said he would prohibit an officer from duty with alcohol on his breath; the discipline "would depend on the circumstances."

Troops Of U.N. To Leave Yemen

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) —Secretary General Thant today announced the withdrawal of the United Nations military team from revolt-torn Yemen but said he would maintain civilian observers there.

In a report to the Security Council, Thant said activities by the United Arab Republic and Saudi Arabia in support of opposing sides in the revolution which overthrew the Imam last year were continuing.

Raises Passed By House Unit

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House postoffice and civil service committee today approved legislation to raise the pay of congressmen, cabinet members, federal judges and about 1.8 other government employees by 600 million dollars a year.

The measure would raise the pay of practically every civilian federal employee, from the vice president to the lowest ranking civil servant. Increases in civil service and postoffice ranks would range from 3 to 22.5 per cent. Top level appointed and elected officials would get increases of up to $10,000 a year.

The committee approved the bill 15-9 but it is sure to run into plenty of opposition from economizers in Congress.

MARIN YACHT CLUB OF FUTURE —Artist's conception shows how Marin Yacht Club facilities on Beale Island in San Rafael Creek are expected to look when completed. Club yesterday raised its burgee on the island to mark completion of fill, initial stage of the project.

Hearing Slated On Coyote Creek

Residents of Tamalpais Valley will have a chance to express themselves on the proposed Coyote Creek flood control project at a public hearing on Nov. 21 in the county Civic Center.

Marin County board of supervisors yesterday set the hearing for 8 p.m. Nov. 21 in the supervisors' chambers on the third floor of the center.

The $800,000 project will be financed by the Army Corps of Engineers and State Department of Water Resources. It calls for widening the channel from Richardson Bay Bridge to Crest Marin with an earth bank, and a concrete channel from Main Street along Shroeline Highway to Maple Street.

Acquisition of land for the widening will involve about 85 parcels, but most of them are minor, Public Works Director Donald R. Frost reported.

"At least a half dozen homes and maybe more will have to go in the Kay Park and Crest Marin area," said Frost.

By the Nov. 21 hearing, Frost said he hopes to have a list of what homes will be demolished and what parcels will be taken.

The supervisors authorized payment of $8,500 to Neil Brodsgar for appraisals of various parcels. A similar amount has been paid to appraiser David Cohn. The appraisal cost will be reimbursed by the State Department of Water Resources.

Fairfax Police Exams

Seventeen persons have filed applications to take an examination on Nov. 9 for the position of Fairfax police officer, according to Police Chief James Orr. An oral examination will be given two weeks after the written examination.

Stay Granted Slayer At San Quentin

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The U. S. Court of Appeals granted a stay of execution yesterday to Lawrence A. Jackson, who was to have died in the San Quentin prison gas chamber today for the rape murder of a Riverside County woman.

The stay was granted pending disposition of an appeal against a ruling Monday by U. S. Dist. Judge A. J. Zirpoli, who turned down a petition for a stay of execution and a writ of habeas corpus.

The appeals court said the appeal hearing will be expedited during the week of Dec. 9.

Allan Brotsky, Jackson's court appointed attorney, argued that Jackson is dominated by an uncontrollable sex urge and to execute him would be cruel and unusual punishment.

Wall Of Water Hits Homes As Tower Breaks

OAKLAND (AP) — A water tower designed to fit objections of surrounding residents fell apart yesterday, pouring 325,000 gallons of water into streets in the East Oakland hills.

Two cars were tossed about by the deluge, windows were broken, pedestrians ran for cover, pavement was chewed up, lawns ruined, doors bashed in and homes flooded as the deluge let loose about 3:30 p.m.

No one was injured. A dog was buried in debris, but freed. The $150,000 structure, 54 feet in diameter, 32 feet deep and capable of holding 500,000 gallons, was being filled for the first time.

"The walls collapsed with a sound like an explosion," one housewife said. Another reported, "There was a wall of water rushing . . . with a rumble like an earthquake."

A 20-year-old youth standing in front of a house said, "I felt the sidewalk rolling and looked up and saw the telephone poles swaying. I thought at first it was an earthquake. Then I saw this wall of water rushing down on us."

Officials of the East Bay Municipal Utility District said the tower was designed in the shape of a lotus to meet neighborhood objections to standard-shaped towers.

Residents said they will start a petition opposing a new reservoir in the area. Some contended the tower had been leaking for at least a week.

Teen Dance Slated

Our Lady of Mount Carmel Elysian Club, a Catholic Youth Organization teen club, will hold a membership dance at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Municipal Golf Club House, Mill Valley.

RED SIGN BATTLE EXPECTED AGAIN

Supervisors Set Dec. 3 For Hearing, Possible Decision On Lights Ruling

The battle for and against the use of red in lighted signs in the unincorporated areas of Marin is expected to flare up again at 2 p.m. Dec. 3 in the supervisors' chambers of the Civic Center.

The county board of supervisors yesterday set that date for a public hearing and possible decision.

Red-lighted signs are banned in the county areas, although some cities allow them. Last week, the county planning commission voted 4 to 3 in favor of permitting the red-lighted signs.

Businessmen, especially oil companies, contend they need red-lighted signs to attract business. Opponents contend red signs conflict with traffic safety signals and should remain outlawed.

The Marin County Board Of Supervisors Also:

1. Set for 2 p.m. Nov. 19 public hearing on proposed rezoning of Los Ranchitos, now limited agricultural, for residential with minimum one-acre sites.

2. Asked Asst. Administrator John F. Barrows to see if newspapers are willing to help pay for new newspaper racks for the front entrance to the Civic Center. A design in keeping with the buildings architecture would cost $175 per rack, with each rack to hold two different newspapers. "That's too much," said Supervisor Peter H. Behr. Supervisor George H. Ludy suggested the papers be asked to share the cost.

3. Opened 11 bids for 16 new compact sedans to replace old county cars. Prices ranged from Dexter Motors' $1,694 per car plus tax to a high of $1,897 per car plus tax. All bids were turned over to the county purchasing agent for review.

4. Opened bids for new storm drain and piping on Vendola and Hawthorne in Santa Venetia. Bids ranged from $27,341 to $31,814, much higher than expected.

5. Opened bids for construction of a pumping station on Vendola Drive. These ranged from a low of $13,341 by R. B. McNair Sons of Berkeley to a high of more than $35,000. Both these and the storm drain bids were referred to the public works department.

6. Agreed to clean some ditches for the Terra Linda community services district. The cost will be reimbursed by the district.

7. Approved a slight revision in the parking plan at the Civic Center parking area. Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said it means converting 19 two-hour parking spaces to all-day parking, because "we have more two-hour parking than needed at present."

8. Granted D. M. Christensen Construction Co. a use permit for apartments in the Marinwood planned community area. It is bounded by Miller Creek, Las Gallinas Avenue, Miller Creek Road and the Marinwood Commercial Center.

9. Approved a tentative map for Del Mesa Heights, an eight-acre subdivision, for August Hanken and James Wilson. The property is on the south side of Laurel Grove Avenue in Kentfield.

10. Approved a 71-unit apartment project by Milland Development Co. on four and one-half acres in Strawberry, on the north side of Ricardo Road at Strawberry Drive.

11. Approved a lot split for Audrey L. Rowe at 19 Stetson Avenue, Kentfield. The county planning commission had recommended denial.

12. Approved a Standard Oil Co. service station on the south side of Bel Marin Keys Boulevard, opposite Montego Key, Bel Marin Keys.

13. Approved Mariner Oaks lot 6, an apartment building on Mar West Road in Tiburon near Red Hill.

14. Appointed supervisor Behr to represent the county on the Redwood Empire Assn. supervisors unit natural resources study group.

15. Appointed William A. Fleming, a Mill Valley certified public accountant, to the citizens advisory committee for the program for senior citizens.

16. Heard from Mark Falcone, county collection agent, that the California County Collectors Assn. is trying to get legislation to restore strong lien rights as security for indigent hospital care. Supervisors asked Falcone to meet with the county cousel, county administrator, welfare and medical officials to work up a set of recommendations.

20 Attend Special Classes

Twenty children from Mill Valley School District are attending special classes because of mental and physical handicaps, district trustees were informed Monday night.

Four are enrolled in the Southern Marin section of the class for "trainable" mentally retarded children; 11 others who are retarded but considered "educable" are receiving special instruction in classes in Mill Valley and Larkspur; five children, one of whom is deaf, attend Marindale School for physically handicapped.

The board received a citation of merit "for having demonstrated its skill in use of modern techniques of communication and for fostering better relations between the administration, faculty and community." The award was one of 40 made in the United States by the School Management Magazine and the School Board Publications Assn. of Rutgers University.

Trustees also re-affirmed district interest in transferring 1,000 acres of land in Tennessee Valley to the Sausalito School District. Mill Valley and Sausalito School District boards will discuss the subject at 8 p.m. Monday in the Mill Valley board office, 26 Miller Avenue.

Marin Yacht Club Completes Fill Project

Officers of the Marin Yacht Club yesterday raised the club's burgee on Beale Island in San Rafael Canal to mark the completion of the fill project for a new clubhouse and additional berths.

The $150,000 building project, to begin in two or three years, will consist of 85 new berths and a clubhouse.

There are plans for three guest houses on Beale Island. Also, the present clubhouse off San Pedro Road might be converted for overnight use, according to Commodore Charles Cooper.

A storage area for small boats and parking lot will also be built on the island.

The next step in the construction is facing the filled area with rip rap. A permit for this part of the project is currently pending before the Corps of Engineers.

Novato Grants Extension For San Marin Annex

The Novato City Council granted a 45-day extension last night in proceedings to annex the 2,200-acre San Marin Development to the city.

This was done at request of Robert H. Walter, vice president in charge of the real estate division of Sunset International Petroleum Corp.

"We are asking the 45-day extension on the basis of the recommendation of our staff and the city staff to finalize the planned community zoning," Walter said.

The extension will permit the procedure to go through the city planning staff and planning commission before annexation, he said.

Lagunitas Group Takes Apart Plan For Unification

Proposal For Merger Backed By Local School Trustees

By ELLEN BRY

Residents of Lagunitas last night discussed the advantages and disadvantages of school unification in Southern Marin while taking verbal swipes at the quality of education offered by their local school district.

Forty-eight persons were present at "Marin County's most exclusive night club"—a phrase used by Earl Marshall of Novato to describe the series of 11 evening meetings scheduled around Tamalpais High School District so voters may better understand the unification proposal.

Marshall is chairman of the Augmented Marin County Committee on School District Organization, which has tentatively proposed unification of the Tamalpais Union High School District. Unification would mean that the 11 elementary school districts and the high school district would be voted out of existence and would be replaced by one district and one governing board for kindergarten through high school.

Opposition to the proposal last night came most strongly from Winifred Frederick, a former member of the Lagunitas School District Board. Mrs. Frederick said she objects to unification into one large district because class size probably would increase, there would be no financial advantage to the taxpayer, and local communication with the school board and school would be lost.

"You can improve the education procedure in this district by just as much as you are willing to put into it," she said.

Operating tax rate for Lagunitas elementary schools has increased from 90 cents to $2 per 100 assessed valuation since 1957, but two attempts to increase it still farther have failed. An increase from 90 cents to $1.75 was turned down twice by the voters in 1957, but passed the following year. An increase to $2 for one year only passed in 1959, and was extended for five years in a 1960 election. On Jan. 5, 1962, voter rejected an increase to $2.75. Last April 16, the district tried for a raise to $3.05, which also was turned down.

During the same period, a bond issue and state loan were approved after one defeat.

The one district school, on Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, has 16 teachers and about 430 pupils through the eighth grade.

Figures prepared by the office of the county superintendent of schools show that each pupil in the Lagunitas district now is backed by approximately $8,263 of assessed valuation for taxing purposes. Unification into one district would mean that each of about 13,000 elementary students in the new district would be backed by approximately $13,353 in assessed valuation on which taxes could be levied.

For each of the approximately 125 high school students from the district, who attend Sir Francis Drake High, there now is about $28,300 in assessed valuation. Unification into one large district would mean about $35,519 in assessed valuation backing each of some 5,000 high school students.

The advantage for Lagunitas would be "money," as Mrs. James J. Brown of Woodacre plainly put it.

"I think we're cheating our kids," she said. "We aren't able to do as much as a larger district. ... Right now they need an education."

"Local control is not necessarily running to your board member or calling him in the evening," said Jack Mengel of Corte Madera, vice chairman of the county committee.

Local control, he continued, "is having enough finances to get what you want. Do you have all the things that you feel your children are entitled to? Can you afford them?"

In answering comment, Mrs. Frederick said she was most happy to return her children to the Lagunitas district, after some time in East Bay schools, because of the "good, solid education here" compared with a "sand lot, sand pile situation" in a kindergarten across the Bay.

A larger district area would mean a "hierarchy" of administration too distant from the people and a district board of seven members who would not be representative nor responsive enough, said J. R. B. Ellis, a member of the Kentfield School District Board. Other boards represented at the meeting were San Anselmo, Fairfax and Lagunitas.

"Beyond 10,000 (students) you start to lose any sense of local response and chance to know where central headquarters is," Ellis said.

The proposed unification would cover about 189 square miles and start with about 18,000 students. A maximum load of 60,000 students has been estimated for future years.

"The people out here will still be as close to Drake and to (Lagunitas School, as they are now," Mengel answered. "I think we will get a lot more for the dollar with unification."

The Lagunitas board, as a whole, in a prepared statement read into the committee record, strongly backed unification. But a dissenting voice last night came from Mrs. Robert M. Vilas of Woodacre, who became a Lagunitas board member after the statement was made public. She said she opposed a "large, single unified district," preferring unification of the area covered by the present Tam district into two, three, or four districts.

"If the people in the San Geronimo Valley voted 100 per cent against (unification), we could be outvoted," she said.

Unification into smaller districts would "fragment" the present Tam district, a "dynamic, outgoing" one, said two teachers at Drake High School, James J. Brown and Keith Lester, both of Woodacre.

A proposal on reorganization must ultimately go to voters throughout the proposed unification area, who may approve it by a simple majority.

Any approval of bond leveling, which might be voted on at the same time, would need two-thirds voter approval in every district. If one district were to disapprove, bonds would not be leveled across the entire new district but would remain the responsibility of the area of the old districts.

The seven man board of trustees, elected at large representing trustee areas, is proposed for the unified district.

MARIN HIGHWAYS BUDGET: $961,000

$500,000 Is Allocated For San Rafael, Money Set Aside For Waldo Barriers

The state highway budget, adopted by the highway commission today, includes $961,000 for projects in Marin County.

In that total, $50,000 has been set aside for purchase of rights of way in the county. Location of the rights of way were not specified in the budget.

Largest part of the budget for the county will go toward projects in San Rafael. For these projects, $500,000 has been allocated.

They are: extension of Grand Avenue across San Rafael Creek to the Highway 101 frontage road, grading and paving of Second Street between Grand Avenue and Francisco Boulevard, and realigning the Irwin Street off-ramp prior to widening of the highway.

Other projects include $231,000 for construction of various types of median barrier on Highway 101 one-fourth of a mile south of the Waldo Grade undercrossing at Marin City and $180,000 for reconstructing shoulders and installation of drains on portions of Highway 101 between the Black Point Cut-off and the Sonoma County line.

Record Highway Budget Of $577 Million Passed

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The California Highway Commission adopted another record budget today—$577,212,100 for state highway construction in the 1964-65 fiscal year.

The total, up 22.5 million dollars from this year, which was also a record, will provide for planning and building 286 miles of multi-lane expressways, 37.6 miles of two-lane expressways, and hundreds of smaller projects.

Another 218 million dollars was budgeted by the commission for purposes other than construction and purchase of rights-of-way, bringing the total to 795 million dollars. The other items involve design, planning and allocations for local roads.

Commission Chairman Robert B. Bradford said priority will be given to building the state's 2,177-mile share of interstate highway system.

The budget contains 305.7 million dollars in federal funds, with 256.1 million dollars of it earmarked for the interstate system.

The state will chip in 481.3 million dollars.

Sources of state revenue include 350.5 million dollars from gasoline taxes, 86.9 million dollars in motor vehicle license fees, 27.2 million dollars in diesel fuel taxes, 14.6 million dollars in for-hire vehicle taxes and 1.9 million dollars in interest.

A one-cent boost in the state gasoline tax, to seven cents a gallon, will provide an additional 75 million dollars but it's earmarked for cities and counties for streets and local roads.

Two Deputy Court Clerks Appointed

Two new deputies in the Marin Municipal Court clerk's office were appointed yesterday by the county board of supervisors: Marjorie Leit, at $245 per month, and Margaret B. Odell, at $360.

Dr. Paul Davidson was appointed a deputy county physician at $100 per on-call day. Diane Battaglia was appointed library aide, half time, at $165 per month. Martha L. Sattui was promoted to senior clerk in the welfare department at $465.

Brown Son-In-Law Part-Time State Job Paying $379

Dental Board Counsel Position Revealed By Senate Committee

SACRAMENTO (AP) — San Francisco attorney Joseph Kelly, one of Gov. Edmund D. Brown's sons-in-law, is a $379-a-month part time counsel for the State Board of Dental Examiners.

This was revealed by State Sen. Alan Short, (D-Stockton), yesterday at a meeting of his Senate fact finding committee on business and commerce.

Short mentioned Kelly's job after saying he had received several complaints that attorneys were working for boards "they had no business working for."

Victor Hill, executive secretary to the dental board, said Kelly was picked from a civil service list.

Short also said he understood that some boards and commissions regulating businesses and professions "are meeting regularly at Lake Tahoe, Palm Springs and other spas.

"I'm wondering what they do and why they meet at these plush vacation spots," he said.

Short was also critical of the practice of the attorney general's office of charging legal fees to the boards and commissions. He said he tought the services were provided free.

It was brought out that the attorney general's office had charged the groups fees totaling $250,000 last year.

Short also said he had received complaints that members of some boards were sharing a day's pay, $25 in most cases, for grading examination papers at home.

Aboard Destroyer

Roger D. Townsend, seaman apprentice, USN, ward of Mrs. Jesse R. Townsend of 119 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael, aboard the destroyer USS Perkins, participated in exercise "Black Bear" off the Coast of California, Sept. 30 through Oct. 4.

2 Plead Innocent In Burglary Case

Bunny Violet Breeding and Robert Gene Jochum pleaded innocent yesterday to the Oct. 20 burglary of the apartment of Ron Malstrom of 30 Locust Avenue, Larkspur.

Judge Harold J. Haley in Marin Municipal Court put the case over until tomorrow to set the preliminary hearing. Miss Breeding, 32, on probation from San Francisco, and Jochum, 21, who said he arrived from Missouri six weeks ago, were arrested when police noticed their car and trailer, which fitted the description of those seen by neighbors at the burglary.

At the time of the burglary, the victim was in jail in San Francisco on a traffic warrant.

Carrow Again Is Named To Novato Council

Robert D. Carrow, Novato attorney, was appointed for the second time to the Novato iCty Council at a special meeting yesterday afternoon at the Community House.

He was sworn into office later in the afternoon so the council would have a quorum for its 8 p.m. meeting.

Mrs. John Machado of 1412 Dawes Street questioned the legality of the meeting.

"There was no way for the public to know about it, because it was announced too late Monday for the Independent-Journal deadline and KTIM did not broadcast it until its 2 p.m. news this afternoon," she said.

"The public should be made aware of a special meeting of the council."

Acting Mayor John Angeloni told her the meeting was necessary so the council would have a quorum, since Mayor M. E. Babe Silva and Councilman Everett Pozzi both would be out of town for the night meeting.

"Our job is to run the city business the best we can," Angeloni said.

Councilman Howard Schoof resigned effective tomorrow. A subsequent resignation was dated effective Oct. 18. Angeloni said that he was informed by City Atty. Clark M. Palmer Jr. that the council did not have to take formal action in accepting the second Schoof resignation.

On Oct. 17 the council had appointed Carrow to the position which had not yet been vacated by Schoof. This necessitated appointing him a second time, the city attorney said.

MARCH OF DIMES CHILD

Learning to walk, winsome Mary Lou Graves, 5, of Flint, Mich., uses the parallel bars at the Rotary Orthopedic Clinic of Flint. Born with an open spine, the little girl has fought to be able to walk since she underwent an operation. Yesterday she was named 1964 National March of Dimes Child. (UPI photo)

Driver Fined $176

Bernard Edward Piecznski, 50, of 57 Spruce Road, Fairfax, was fined $176 for drunken driving yesterday after he pleaded guilty before Judge Harold J. Haley in Marin Municipal Court. He was arrested Oct. 25 by San Rafael police at Second and Lindaro streets.

Billing Change For Taxes To Save Money

If you own six different parcels of property, don't be alarmed when you get six different bills in separate envelopes from the county tax collector's office.

Tax collector-treasurer Stanley J. Fontez announced that this year for the first time, he is adopting a system of billing by parcel. This saves the cost of pulling all bills together for one owner and stuffing them by hand into one envelope, he explained.

With the new system, all bills can be processed through the automatic stuffing machine instead of by hand, thus saving about $2,000 in extra hire, according to Fontez. The extra envelopes involved will raise the postage cost by about $250.

County tax bills will begin going out tomorrow. A total of 67,000 bills will be mailed this year, 50,000 to individual taxpayers and the remainder to financial institutions which handle the bill payments for individuals.

$80 Chairs Stolen

Three dining room chairs, valued at $80 each, were reported stolen Monday from a model home at 200 Mount Shasta Drive, Marinwood. Sales manager E. F. Sthymmel of Eichler Homes, Inc., said nothing else was taken. He said the house was locked, there was no signs of forced entry.

Bicycle Is Stolen

Theft of a green and white Schwinn biclycle from the bicycle rack at Davidson School was reported to San Rafael police Monday by Timothy Ecke of 31 Glenaire Drive, San Rafael. The bicycle was stolen between 4 and 5 p.m., he said.

Center Road Walkway Is Sought In Novato

Parents from the St. Francis Heights tract last night asked the Novato city council to put a concrete walkway along Center Road from West Novato School to St. Francis Heights.

A petition signed by 25 residents asked for the walk.

"We want just a pathway so that the children do not have to walk on the road with construction trucks going to three subdivisions," said Mrs. Edward T. Kreger of 21 St. John's Court, spokesman for the group.

"There is not enough space to put a walkway beside the road," said Charles Joseph, director of public works. The city owns the street, but land beside it, where a path would go, is in county jurisdiction, he said.

On the suggestion of Acting Mayor John Angeloni, moved by new Councilman Robert D. Carrow, the matter was referred to the traffic safety committee for a report in two weeks.

Ghilotti Brothers of San Rafael was awarded a $20,127 contract to resurface South Novato Boulevard from Yukon Way to Diablo Avenue, Diablo Avenue from South Novato Boulevard to Highway 101, Virginia Avenue and North Redwood Drive. Ghilotti was the lowest of seven bidders.

The Novato Fair Shopping Center master plan was amended to allow for a service station in the northeast corner of the center. Access to the station will be limited to northeast bound traffic from Diablo Avenue and traffic within the center.

The Novato City Council also:

1. Authorized the public works department to pave between curbs and center pavement at the West Novato School, estimated to cost $764.
2. Received letters from the state division of highways advising it will start proceedings on Jan. 2 to sell the old Grant School property at public auction unless the city negotiates before that time.
3. Authorized City Administrator J. Julien Baget to work with the Monte Maria community services district in removal of a tree from Sunset Parkway.
4. Extended from Dec. 1 to Jan. 1, 1964 the time for the completion of the Marin Golf and Country Club unit 4.
5. Approved changing the name of the realigned portion of San Jose Boulevard to Ignacio Boulevard.
6. Set for Nov. 26 hearing on abandonment of Prospect Road.

Doctor For Ike Is Given Award

NEW YORK (AP) — Dr. Paul Dudley White, 77-year-old heart specialist, received the first gold stethoscope award of the International Cardiology Foundation last night from a one-time patient, former President Dwight D. Eisenhower.

The presentation was made at a $100-a-plate dinner for the benefit of the foundation, of which White is a founder and president.

White treated Eisenhower after his heart attack in 1955.

Volunteer Fireman

Carl Brown, who freed the hand of dishwasher Billie Jo Miller, 16, from a meat grinder Sunday at Zim's Restaurant in the Corte Madera Shopping Center, is a Corte Madera volunteer fireman, not a Larkspur volunteer as mistakenly reported in Monday's Independent-Journal.

HE'S A VITAL STATISTIC

Lawrence Mayer, Mill Valley businessman, became the Marin Blood Center's 10,000 donor Monday. A frequent visitor to the center in San Rafael, Mayer arrived with four other members of the Mill Valley Rotary Club who contributed to a Marin Rotary Reserve Fund. Gloria Gibala, R.N., acting supervisor of the center, shown taking the blood, said more donors like Mayer would help the center greatly in its struggle to meet its 400-pint, monthly quota. Novato Jaycees Plan Survey On Questions Vital To Area

The Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce is preparing to conduct a community survey covering such controversial questions as school unification.

Specifically, the Jaycees will ask "Do you favor unification of the Novato Unified and San Jose School Districts?"

There will be 40 other questions also in the survey, covering civic issues in the North Marin area, as well as the City of Novato.

James McConnell, project chairman, said the Jaycees have not set a date for completion of the survey and tabulation, but expect it will take several months.

An earlier survey by the Novato Junior Chamber of Commerce was influential in getting the freeway route moved from the business district to the area east of the railroad and in getting bonds for a city swimming pool placed before the voters.

Some of the questions in the new survey are:

Do you think a new library should be built in Novato?

Is the city council fair and impartial on legislative matters affecting our community?

Should the city purchase, landscape and maintain small scattered park areas?

Are you satisfied with the amount of street maintenance performed by the public works department?

What services do you think the city should provide that are not presently furnished?

Ambulance Service Given Go-Ahead

Michael Manick's new California Ambulance Service in Novato was awarded the right to provide emergency service in North Marin through action of county supervisors yesterday.

Rezoning of the county ambulance service was voted to let California Ambulance take over territory hitherto covered by United Ambulance Service in San Rafael and the Petaluma Police Ambulance, both of which had agreed.

Manck's firm will henceforth will be dispatched on northern area calls over the county-operated local government radio circuits. His equipment has been certified by the California Highway Patrol.

County Firemen Win Promotions

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom today announced three department promotions that will take effect Friday with the retirement of three veteran staff officers.

Harold S. Rowan, 28, of Tomales will become assistant chief at $580 a month, replacing A. J. Giambastiani. Rowan has been in the department four years.

Clarence Nunes, 26, of Forest Knolls will become captain at $555 a month, replacing his father, A. L. Nunes Sr. Young Nunes has been with the department 10 years.

William Stepp, 25, of Woodacre will become a captain at $508 a month, replacing Frank L. Machado. Stepp has been with the department four years.

Bloom based the appointments partly on the results of an examinnation. Stepp was high scorer. Rowan and Nunes tied for second place.

Bloom also announced appointment for four new men, bringing the fulltime county fire force to 44. The new fire wardens are Marty Medin, at Woodacre; William S. Dilena at Hicks Valley; Jerry M. Van Soest at Santa Venetia, and Peter Martin, at the Mount Tamalpais lookout station.

Butterscotch Rice Pudding

Mix ½ cup uncooked rice (not processed), 1 cup brown suger, ½ tsp salt and ½ tsp nutmeg in shallow 2½ qt baking dish. Stir in 1 quart milk. Then, to prevent spilling, add second quart of milk after placing dish in the oven. Bake in 325 deg. oven 2½ hours, stirring twice during first hour. Stir the brown crust into pudding several times during the remainder of baking. Then allow crust to form again. Serve cold, with cream, if desired. Makes 6-8 servings.

The reason why is simply this: Idahos, you see, come from where potatoes grow best. Up where there's plenty of good volcanic soil, mountain waters and the proper high altitude. The flavor's there to stay. So it won't mash away. Boil away. Or fry away. Comes through rich and full in an instant, too. Try Idahos the way your family likes potatoes best. Goldwater Might Tell Plans Soon

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater says he may announce whether he will seek the Republican presidential nomination sooner than he had planned.

A leading contender for the nomination, Goldwater told a news conference last night that if he seeks the nomination he will campaign vigorously in nation primary next March 10.

During a brief visit to New Hampshire, the Arizona Republican referred to the Jan. 27 deadline he had set for announcing his plans and said:

"I think I may make up my mind before that time in fairness to my supporters and the Republican party."

In an aside to supporters he said: "I expect to be back soon."

Only 11 days ago, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York made a two-day speaking tour of New Hampshire and promised to enter the New Hampshire primary if he decides to seek the GOP nomination.

Congress To Keep Working —Rights, Tax Chances Slim

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress will stay in operation right up to the start of the 1964 session. Even so, it may not have time enough to act this year on the top-priority tax cut and civil rights legislation.

Senators got the news yesterday of the nonstop session—the first in 22 years — from Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield. And House leaders indicated they expect about the same sort of schedule.

Mansfield told his colleagues to expect a one-day break for Veterans Day, two days off at Thanksgiving and a 12-day Christmas-New Year recess.

Mansfield said the Senate would be back Jan. 2 and that it might meet the morning of Jan. 3. The first session of the 88th Congress must—by law—end at noon that day.

If the Senate convenes in the morning of Jan. 3, it will stop at noon and reconvene one minute later to start the second session, Mansfield said.

The Senate will be faced with a bigger load in November and December than the House.

The House has passed one of President John F. Kennedy's two top priority bills, the 11-billion-dollar tax cut. The other, a civil rights bill, was approved in committee yesterday. Both are in the hearing stage in the Senate.

The limitations of the calendar appeared to make it almost certain that Congress cannot pass the bills this year.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen told newsmen it was his best guess that the civil rights bill would reach the Senate about Dec. 1.

A Southern filibuster is expected against the measure and that will probably use up December.

With long debate likely on civil rights, chairman Harry F. Byrd (D-Va.) can be expected to shut down his Finance Committee's consideration of the tax measure which he opposes.

The committee, now in its fourth week of public hearings on the bill, still has more than 125 witnesses to hear.

Unofficially, however, Senate Democratic leaders say they plan to try to get both the tax and civil rights legislation to the president this year.

Cow Produces Twice Average Milk Output

Hedegard Jo Dazzler, a 7-year-old cow owned by Marvin L. Nunes of Point Reyes Station, produces more than twice as much as the average cow.

Hedegard produced a record 14,699 pounds of milk and 584 pounds of butterfat in 318 days, the Holstein Friesian Assn. of America announced today. The average cow's output is 7,211 pounds of milk and 270 pounds of butterfat.

S.F. 49ers Are Once Again Deep In Miseries And Deep In NFL Cellar

Jack Hanley

For a fleeting 24-hour period a fortnight ago it seemed that the woes of the 49ers finally had come to an end. That was the Sunday they upset the Bears. Remember? Now, they once again are deep in miseries—and deep in the NFL Western Conference cellar where the Rams left them last Sunday.

How can a team play as it did against the conference leading Bears on one Sunday and on the following Sunday be bruised and battered by a cellar mate? Red Hickey no longer is around to take the blame. He quit in disgust and frustration.

Surely, Jack Christiansen, the redhead's interim successor, can't be blamed. Unlike Hickey, Christiansen speaks softly, deferentially and respectfully to 49ers whose pride and dignity were hurt by Hickey's harsh criticisms.

FURTHERMORE, didn't Christiansen simplify 49er plays? Didn't he reduce the number of plays to a basic dozen for each game—12 to the right side, 12 to the left? Technically, that totals 24 but basically the plays to the right or left are the same, except for their direction.

Wasn't that simple setup what the team wanted? Didn't Christiansen stay with it despite defeats in Detroit and Baltimore that extended the 49er losing streak to 12 games? And, then, when the team surprised everyone by upsetting the Bears, didn't 49er players praise Christiansen "for having the guts" to stick with the simplified setup?

Inferentially, that praise for Christiansen was criticism for Hickey who used to install new plays each week.

MAYBE Christiansen shouldn't have inserted one new play for last Sunday's game against the Rams. It did seem like Christiansen was subjecting himself to criticism when the play backfired first time it was tried.

It was a pass-run option pitchout by Lamar McHan to Jim Vollenweider who fumbled when hit hard by Ed Meador. However, later in the game with Don Lisbon working the same play it went for a touchdown—a 45 yard pass to Gary Knafelc.

Thus, it became obvious that Christiansen had not over-burdened the 49ers with too much pre-game practice on the one new play. After all, the addition of one new play a month shouldn't be too much of a strain on the 49ers—and it's been a month now since Hickey said his farewell.

Cincinnati Royals Trip Up Warriors By 108-101 Count

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Match the new Wilt Chamberlain against the same old Oscar Robertson and the San Francisco Warriors can get beaten by the Cincinnati Royals.

At least that was the case last night when the Royals downed San Francisco 108-101 before a National Basketball Assn. crowd of 3,127 at the University of San Francisco gym.

Chamberlain, although he wound up as the night's high man with 32 points, drew a blank when the Warriors needed some scoring while he learned his new role as a playmaker.

But Cincinnati's Robertson stuck to the script and was a key man in the Royals' victory. The "Big O" collected 28 points and 14 assists while the "big dipper" registered only four assists to go with his output and blew seven of 13 free throw attempts. He was scoreless until the second period was five seconds old when he sank a free throw.

The loss dropped the Warriors out of a first-place tie with the idle Los Angeles Lakers who move in next Saturday night for San Francisco's next game.

Coach Alex Hannum's team never held a lead last night and only tied the game once in the opening seconds.

With rookie Jerry Lucas, who rolled 21 points, hitting for seven quick ones, the Royals forged a 10-2 lead. Then they drew off to a 24-6 margin while outscoring the Warriors 14-0.

San Francisco couldn't buy a basket during five minutes of the opening period as the veteran Jack Twyman helped Robertson move the Royals far out to the front.

San Francisco twice cut Cincinnati's lead to five points late in the game. But then Bob Boozer and Twyman, who may have sustained a fractured left hand, bucketed consecutive field goals to cinch things.

Tom Meschery of the Warriors sustained a cut forehead that required 10 stitches midway through the last quarter. He left the floor under his own power but was scheduled to spend the night in the hospital.

A BREATHTAKER — Eddie Cotton (right) of Seattle, Wash., throws a hard right into the stomach of Detroit's Henry Hank in the third round of their 15-round light heavyweight bout in Michigan last night. Cotton was awarded the decision and won the Michigan version of the world light-heavyweight championship. (AP Wirephoto)

Ed Cotton Decisions Henry Hank

FLINT, Mich. (AP) — It may take a while for Eddie Cotton to get a crack at the world light heavyweight championship. But the quiet Seattle fighter will take the title to pieces if he has to.

Cotton, ranked the No. 1 contender to World Boxing Assn. champion Willie Pastrano, won the Michigan version of the world title with a unanimous decision over sixth-ranked Henry Hank of Detroit last night.

Cotton has won decisions over highly rated foreign fighters, including Scotland's Chick Calderwood, but has yet to get the fight he wants — with Pastrano.

Cotton, 36, gave away seven years and 2½ pounds to Hank, but used his six-inch reach advantage to keep the Detroit slugger off balance with an effective left jab. Cotton weighed 172½ pounds and Hank 175.

The Seattle puncher, a tool and die maker with an aircraft firm when he's not fighting, admitted Hank hurt him in the ninth round.

"He hit me good, but I didn't let him know it and was able to box out of it," Cotton said.

Hank sat dejectedly in his dressing room and talked of quitting the ring.

"When a man fights as good a fight as I did in his home state and loses, then it's about time to quit," he said.

Cotton's manager, George Chemeres, had threatened to pull his fighter out of the match after finding out a 90-second rest period would be used between rounds, instead of the usual 60 seconds.

He later backed off on the demand.

Cotton, of course, would like to fight Pastrano, but it appears a bout with either Germany's Gustav Schultz or Italy's Guilo Ranaldi will be next.

Limping 49ers Try To Prep For Lions

The San Francisco 49er's had trouble filling their 22 positions today as they worked out for Sunday's home battle against Detroit.

In yesterday's workout, for instance, only eight players were available for the seven defensive line and linebacker spots. And end Dan Colchico was too sore to run.

Coach Jack Christiansen said offensive center Karl Rubke and rookie Chuck Sieminski might see action in the defensive line if needed and ordered them to work out at those positions.

The defense became threadbare after Charley Krueger and Walter Rock picked up knee injuries last Sunday that could sideline one or both for the year.

Offensive line coach Bill Johnson had eight men for five spots, but if Rubke and Sieminski go over to the defense that number is cut down to six with only newcomer Clyde Brock around to fill in for anybody who might get injured.

Only four men were available for the quartet of deep back positions, although it was hoped that Abe Woodson would return Sunday to make it five.

Only the ends and offensive back positions were fairly well stocked.

Asst. Coach Bill Johnson was asked why the National Football League has had a rash of injuries this year.

He said "the players are bigger and faster than ever before. You get a 250-pounder who can run like a sprinter and somebody's going to be hurt."

Asst. Coach Moose Myers commented "You sometimes wonder how they keep their heads on their bodies."

Discussing last Sunday's close loss to the Rams, Christiansen said "we probably did not make any more mistakes than we did in the winner against the Bears the week before."

He said it was lack of aggressiveness that cost the Prospectors, but he added that "I think we are showing improvement in most departments, week by week."

Oakland Raider Fans Talking About 'Titles'

All of a sudden the Oakland Raider fans are talking about a possible title shot.

The way they figure it is that their 4-4 record would be more like 7-1 if halfback Clem Daniels had not been injured during four games.

Daniels returned in time to make 125 yards against league-leading San Diego last Sunday as the Raiders nudged the Chargers 34-33 in what probably rates as the biggest win in the history of the team.

Coach Al Davis, who is not as optimistic as his fans, admits the team probably would have done better with Daniels but points out that "other clubs also were deprived of key men with injuries. That's the uncertainty of pro ball."

The Raiders must face defending champion Kansas City Sunday in Oakland and the following Friday at Kansas City.

"I won't be glad to see them," says Davis. The Chiefs have a disappointing 2-4-1 mark and Davis feels they will be out to climb back into the race at the Raiders expense.

Seals Try For Third Straight In Portland

PORTLAND, Ore. (UPI) — The San Francisco Seals try to make it three straight at Portland tonight when they meet the Buckaroos at the Glass Palace.

The Seals did not win during the regular season at Portland last year, but did triumph in the all-important seventh and final game of the semi-final championships last April on their way to the Western Hockey League title.

Then, they won their opener at Portland this year.

After tonight's fray, the Seals are at Seattle Friday and Portland Sunday for the final outing of their 10-game road trip. They return home Nov. 6 for a "Canadian night" battle with Vancouver.

San Francisco enters tonight's game at Portland with a 4-2-1- mark, good for a first place tie in the crowded standings. The Bucks are 3-3.

League statistics show that San Francisco goalie Bob Perreault has been called on to block 255 shots in eight games, making him by far the loop's busiest net-minder.

The team's penalty killers of Nick Mickoski, Charle Burns, Mo Mantha and company have had only two goals scored against them while short-handed. That makes the Seals better at this unique art than any other team in the league.

Knox Death Investigation Continues

BALTIMORE (UPI) — A medical consultation is expected to be the next step taken by the Baltimore Grand Jury investigating the death of Ernie Knox, the part-time boxer who died on Oct. 16 after a fight with heavyweight Wayne Bethea.

The grand jury, which yesterday heard testimony from Bethea and his manager, Bobby Gleason, and Jack Pollack, a former member of the Maryland State Athletic Commission, reportedly will summon the neurosurgeon who operated on Knox.

No subpoenas have been issued for the next hearing, which is expected to be held early next week, but State Attorney William O'Donnell has said "the grand jury has been interested in hearing from the doctor who attended Knox at the hospital."

In a story appearing in the Baltimore News-Post, the surgeon, who requested that his name be withheld, stated that "the injury came as a result of a blow in the fight itself. The type of injury sustained comes from a single blow to the head."

The doctor has stipulated the damage as a blood clot on the left side of the brain.

Cardinals' QB Tops NFL Stats

NEW YORK (AP) — Charlie Johnson's arrival as a top filght quarterback is reflected in the team statistics of the National Football League which show the St. Louis Cardinals leading in both total offense and passing at the season's halfway mark.

The Cardinals also can move the ball on the ground with Bill Triplett and Joe Childress carrying the mail. The St. Louis rushing total of 1,016 yards is topped only by Cleveland and Green Bay.

Johnson's passes to Bobby Joe Conrad, Sonny Randle, Jackie Smith and Triplett are the big gainers in the St. Louis attack that has rallied to 2,744 yards, including 1,728 in the air.

Hawks Score 109-103 Win Over Knicks

By U.P. International

Things seemed hopeless for the St. Louis Hawks last night when they trailed 95-91 with 24 seconds left to go, but they managed to pull out a win over the hapless New York Knicks.

Reserve guard John Barnhill popped in a pair of one-handers within 19 seconds to send the game into overtime. Then the Hawks scored eight straight points in the overtime session and went on to a 109-103 decision.

The night's only other NBA contest took place at the opposite end of the nation where Cincinnati defeated San Francisco, 108-111.

At New York, four Hawks fouled out in the bruising defensive brawl. Bob Pettit wound up with 21 points to take scoring honors while ex-Knick Richie Guerin had 20. Guerin fouled out and Barnhill replaced him just in time to save the game for St. Louis.

Tim Hoover made his debut at center for New York and grabbed 17 rebounds while scoring 16 points. Len Chappel led the Knicks with 20 points.

Big 3 Out Of Almaden Open

ALAMADEN (UPI) — While the kings are away, the princes will play in the $25,000 Almaden Open golf tournament starting here tomorrow.

Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer and Gary Player all have been busy competing in the Canada Cup matches in Paris. So they'll miss this event.

But most of the rest of the nation's outstanding professional shotmakers will be swinging away in an attempt to pick off top money — plus gain an invitation to the Tournament of Champions, which is worth an extra $1,000.

Although the glamor boys are missing, the field still includes three former National PGA kings. The open winners are Jack Fleck, Ed Furgol and Bill Casper.

The men who wore the PGA crown are Jerry Barber, Jim Ferrier and the Herbert brothers, Jay and Lionel.

Defending champion is lanky Al Geiberger, the southern Californian who has been wielding a hot stick in recent tournaments. He finished in a tie for second in the last two tournaments played at Fresno and Las Vegas and has to be the favorite to repeat.

However, another youth playing his best game, Mason Rudolph, won the Fig Garden Open at Fresno last week and when the pros get it going good they usually stay in top form for four or five weeks.

The Almaden course is long at 7,035 yards. There is very little trouble in the way of trees and water hazards. But the PGA tightened up the layout so that there are out-of-bounds stakes every way the golfers look.

"But the course is in beautiful shape," said Lionel Hebert after a practice round. "The fairways are excellent."

Par on the rolling lay-out is 36-36—72. Last year Geiberger won it with a 15-under-par 273.

ARCHIE GOES WESTERN

Usually two-fisted, Archie Moore (right), former light-heavyweight champ, turns to being "two-gun" with actor Robert Fuller on the set of television's "Wagon Train" in Hollywood yesterday. Archie, who has done some acting in the movies, is doing his first Western with this part in the show. With the usual Moor humor, Archie explains that he's "between fights" so he's doing a bit of TV work. (AP Wirephoto)

Cal Under Lights; Injun Backs OK

BERKELEY (AP) — California tackle Roger Foster, still bothered by a knee injury suffered two weeks ago, may not play against UCLA Saturday night in Los Angeles.

Coach Marv Levy has his Bears working out under the lights, normal procedure for this time of year in Berkeley.

STANFORD (AP) — Fullback Ken Babijian has returned to Stanford football practice after recovering from an injury. But Glenn Myers, another fullback, has missed a day's practice.

Indian Coach John Ralston thinks both should be ready for Oregon State up in Corvallis this Saturday.

Vancouver Hockeymen Nip Denver

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Denver lost more than a Western Hockey League game 4-2 to Vancouver last night. It lost its coach—for most of the game.

Incensed at a series of penalties that ended with Vancouver scoring while Denver was two men short, Coach Rudy Pilous of the Invaders protested so energetically he was whistled off the bench by Referee Bill Papp midway of the first period.

The game was the only action in the league last night. Tonight the teams will meet again and San Francisco will play at Portland.

In the Invader-Canuck contest there were 13 penalties, and Vancouver scored three times when Denver was short one or more players.

Vancouver goalie Marcel Paille made 40 saves, several of them on what looked like sure scores from point-blank range.

Larry Popein opened scoring for Vancouver and later counted again. Other scorers were George Ford and Phil Maloney for Vancouver and Gary Jarrett and Steve Witiuk for Denver.

Redwood Leads Defense; Ackerman No. 1 Runner

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Drake High's undefeated Pirate grid team is leading the Marin Athletic League in all offensive departments after the fourth round of games played last weekend, according to statistics compiled by the Independent-Journal.

Drake leads in rushing with 591 yards, passing with 325 yards and total offense with 916 yards.

Redwood's Giants lead in two of three defensive departments, rushed allowed, 290, and total defense, 497 yards. Marin Catholic leads the league in pass defense with 117 yards.

Paul Ackerman, Redwood's fullback who picked up 173 yards on the ground against San Rafael last Friday night when Redwood won 19-6, jumped to the lead in individual rushing statistics. The hard-running lad has picked up 308 yards in 42 carries for a robust 7.3 average.

His performance unseated Drake's Dean Lazzarini as the league's top rusher, the first time he has lost the lead all year. Dean has 284 yards in 43 carries.

TOP PASSER

Roy Otis of Novato retained the passing lead with 209 yards on 16 passes even though his Hornet team didn't play last week. Close behind are Terra Linda's Bob Taylor (195) and Drake's Mike Kemp (193).

Mike Crabtree of Drake barely squeezed by teammate Larry Stein ast he pass receiving leader in the MAL Friday after the Pirtes' 18-13 win over Tam. Crabtree, a flankerback, has 128 yards to 126 for Stein, an end.

Steve Frazzini, who scored two touchdowns in Terra Linda's 13-6 victory over Marin Catholic, took over the scoring lead with 25 points on four touchdowns and one extra point. That PAT is the one point separating him and Lazzarini, who has four touchdowns to his credit.

Notes On Sunday's Pro Games

NEW YORK (AP) — Hanging out the pro football wash—and San Diego's wringer certainly sprung a conspicuous leak in Sunday's upset by Oakland.

The American Football League's Western Division leaders were subjected to one of the most startling passing exhibitions ever put on—anywhere.

Oakland completed only eight passes. But five went for touchdowns. Dobie Craig, Allan Miller and Glen Shaw each hauled in one touchdown pass.

For each, it was the only pass he caught.

THERE WERE so many sub quarterbacks employed on Sunday's National Football League program, you'd have thought all the first-stringers had decided to strike. . . . Green Bay's John Roach, subbing for Bart Starr, completed 9 of 20 passes for 156 yards and one TD. . . . King Hill of Philadelphia, playing for Sonny Jurgensen, hit 10 of 24 for 123 and one TD. . . . Jim Ninowski, who came on for Cleveland starter Frank Ryan, went 4-for-11 for 120 yards and the Browns' only score. . . . George Izo took over for Washington's Norm Snead and passed for the 'Skins' lone TD while connecting on four of 11 for 54. . . . And Don Meredith of Dallas, Detroit's Earl Morrall and Roman Gabriel of Los Angeles graduated to starting roles. . . . Meredith hit on 18 of 49 for 290 yards and three TDs. . . . Morrall was 12 for 16 for 230 and three TDs. . . . Gabriel hit 15 of 25 for 251 and two TDs.

IF ELROY HIRSCH had Crazy Legs, Jerry Hill must have Cockeyed Legs.

Hill, one of the Colts' young and strong running backs, had a bum knee in 1961 and a broken leg in 1962. In two years, he played one game.

But 1963 started differently, and Hill made great strides. Then came Sunday. He fumbled a punt that led to a Green Bay field goal and a 20-3 lead Baltimore never overcame.

Here's how it happened:

As Green Bay moved into punt formation, Hill trotted back to receive. Somehow his legs played trick or treat a couple of days early, and when the ball came down, Hill caught it—right on his ankle.

Hill, however, escaped serious injury. Except to his pride.

Nicklaus 8th Wonder Of The Golfing World

By OSCAR FRALEY

PARIS (UPI)—The eighth wonder of the golfing world today must be a rotund, pink-cheeked, golden-blond young man with a large waistline named Jack Nicklaus.

There is a question in mind as to who the first seven wonders would be. You can mention a lot of names, such as Bobby Jones, Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson, Arnold Palmer, and so on into the night.

But there's a possibility, even a probability, that before he's finished this rotund young man from Ohio will be the first wonder of the fairway universe.

You must consider first of all that he is a mere 23 years old. And, to boot, already he has won such coveted baubles as the U.S. Open championship, the Masters and the Professional Golfers Assn. crown.

SIXTH TITLE

So what does he do now but go out and grab the wedge world by the tail in winning the International Trophy and, with an assist from Arnold Palmer, sweep the United States to its sixth Canada Cup "world championship" in 11 years.

Nicklaus was tied, as they started a fog-shrouded and foreshortened fourth round at St.-Nom-La-Breteche Golf Club, with tough little Gary Player. The undersized weight lifter from South Africa is a former PGA king, too, and it might have understandably have shaken up young Jack on the final nine-hole fling when Player started with an eagle.

It was akin to spitting in the eye of a bobcat, calling young Jack Dempsey a sissy or trying to beat Jack Kramer at Wimbledon with a ping-pong paddle.

All Nicklaus did was start out with five birdies on the first six holes—including a skein of five straight threes—and Player wished he was back in South Africa, or Boru Boru or some other place far away and warmer only temperature-wise.

It was cold enough at St.-Nom-La-Breteche golf course, formerly King Louis XIV's favorite farm, to raise frozen artichokes. The mud was ankle deep where the royal cows at one time browsed and the fog was thick enough to grace the top of a banana split.

But it didn't bother young Jack.

COUP DE GRACE

He applied the coup de grace on the sixth hole before a gallery which included the Duke of Windsor, whose regal proboscis was just as purple as any of the other 2,000 spectators. The team from Spain at this time was even with the Yanks for there was Jack in a bunker some 75 feet from the flag.

He gave it a whop, the ball took one tiny bounce, struck the flag-stick and fell into the cup for a birdie three. The "Dook," as we used to say in Flatbush, almost fell off his shooting stick. Jack just tossed his wedge up in the air and gave out with a piano-key smile.

It was the kiss of death for the Spaniards and, as one feller put, you could hear guitar strings snapping from Barcelona to Seville.

At the end, Nicklaus was five shots ahead of Player and Spain's Sebastian Miguel in the individual race for world supremacy. And he and Palmer, who finished with a 34 to Nicklaus' four-under-par 32, had won the team title by three shots with Palmer eight strokes off the individual lead.

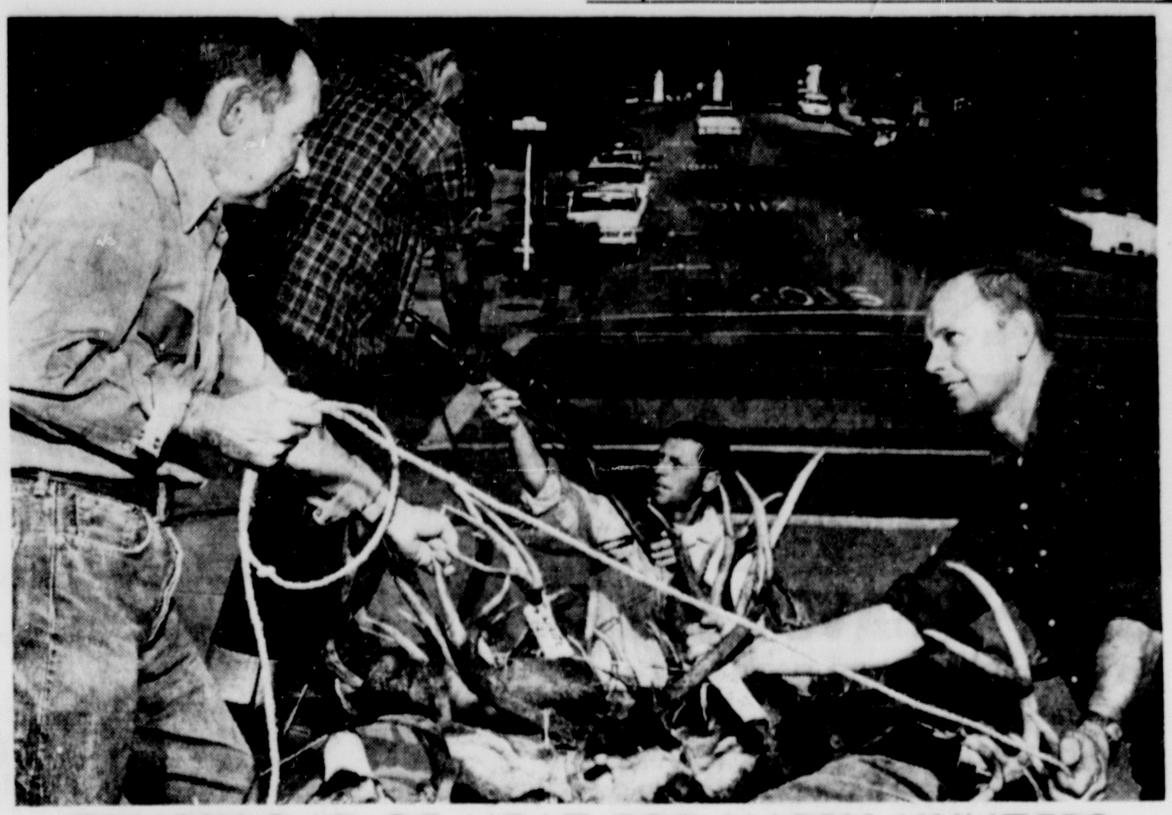
Marin Junior Rifle Club Plans Matches

Marin Rod and Gun Junior Rifle Club members are making plans to enter the H. O. Peters Memorial Match to be held Saturday at the Police Range in San Rafael, Mrs. G. C. Gosser, publicity chairman, said today.

The club also plans to enter winter league competition with its first match set for Nov. 5, Tuesday, at the National Guard Armory, Santa Venetia. A family outing and picnic is scheduled at Lake Lagunitas for early November. No date has been set.

Trophy winners in the parent and junior challenge trophy match Oct. 17 were Skip Gosser and his mother, Mrs. G. C. Gosser, of Mill Valley. The hunter safety course is now in progress with a full class and the next course will start Jan. 13, Mrs. Gosser reported.



TRUCKLOAD OF MEAT FOR HAPPY HUNTERS

This quartet of happy hunters—two from Marin County—had their hands full Saturday as they unloaded nearly a ton of elk and deer meat as the result of their hunting trip in northeastern Colorado last week. The group limited out with eight bucks and picked up two elk for good measure. The load weighed nearly 2,000 pounds. From left are Charles White of Sausalito, Les Ammans of Willow Creek, George Baldini of San Rafael and Tommy Thomas, formerly of Sausalito but now of Willow Creek. Three of the bucks weighed between 200 and 250 pounds; the others between 150 and 180. (Independent-Journal photo)

Trojans Fear Washington Ground Game

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The teams that have been able to run against Southern California have been successful against the Trojans and Coach Johnny McKay today prepared for another running attack from Washington.

McKay pointed out that with the return to action of fullback Junior Coffey, the Huskies have one of the best running teams in the nation. The hard-rushing Coffey is especially effective on trap plays, McKay added.

The game at Seattle could decide the western representative in the Rose Bowl in the opinion of most observers including McKay who recalled that he said before the season started that Washington was the team to beat for the New Year's Day bid.

"They have a lot of good football players and a well-drilled team," he continued. "It doesn't matter that the game is at Seattle and the field might be wet. It's always wet there so far back as I can recall."

McKay admitted his Trojans played their best first half of the season against California last Saturday and he said they were able to pile up a quick lead by "shortening the field" as a result of running the ball back at the Bears.

McKay said he was especially pleased with the work of second string quarterback Craig Fertig who completed six of seven passes and was able to spell Pete Beathard without any letdown. Beathard twisted an ankle in the game but McKay said he expected his star quarterback to be ready for the Huskies.

MEAT AND POULTRY dishes take on new glamor and new flavor when modern mince meat comes into culinary play. Whether it is used in ready-to-use or condensed form, mince meat and its unique spicy fruit flavor works gourmet magic with a wide variety of standard main dishes—from Swiss steak to sauerbraten and from barbecued lamb shanks to spaghetti and meat balls. It works equal wonders with ham and pork entrees, and makes a superb bread stuffing for the holiday bird — be it turkey or any other fowl.

Mince Meat—Menu Magic

The secret of mince meat's success in glamorizing standard meat dishes lies in the careful balance of select quality ingredients. Basically, it is a sweet-tart mixture of juicy apples, sweet raisins, currants, piquant orange and lemon peel, and a fine blend of fragrant domestic and imported spices.

MINCE MEAT-BREAD STUFFING

(Makes 12 cups—enough for 12 pound turkey*)

¾ cup butter
1 cup finely chopped onions
¾ cup finely chopped celery
12 cups bread cubes, lightly packed (about 18 slices day-old bread)
2¼ cups ready-to-use mince meat
1 tablespoon salt
1 tablespoon poultry seasoning
¼ to ½ teaspoon pepper
¾ cup water

Melt butter in large skillet. Add onions and celery. Saute until onions begin to brown and celery is tender. Stir in bread cubes, mince meat, salt, poultry seasoning and pepper. Add water and gently toss ingredients until mixture is moistened. Lightly stuff the mixture into body cavity of uncooked turkey. Close cavity with metal skewers and lace with pieces of white string, to hold skewers securely. Tuck wings under. Place prepared turkey breast side up on rack in roasting pan. Cover turkey with clean piece of cheesecloth dipped in melted butter. Roast in slow oven (325°F.) 3½ to 4 hours, or until done.

*Allow 1 cup of stuffing per pound of turkey when preparing a bird of different weight.

SPICY SWISS STEAK

(Makes 6 servings)

2 pounds top round steak, ¾-inch thick
⅓ cup flour
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
3 tablespoons vegetable oil
2½ cups (1 lb. 2-oz. can) cooked tomatoes
OR
2½ cups peeled, diced ripe tomatoes (3 medium-size)
1⅓ cups ready-to-use mince meat
2 tablespoons onion flakes
2 tablespoon sweet pepper flakes
3 medium-size carrots, scraped
3 medium-size stalks celery, leaves removed

Cut meat into 6 equal pieces. In pie plate or shallow dish, combine flour, salt and pepper. Coat each piece of meat with flour mixture, using entire mixture. With meat hammer or the edge of a heavy saucer, pound the coated meat until it is only ¼-inch thick. Heat oil in heavy skillet. Add meat and brown on both sides. Drain off remaining fat. Add tomatoes, mince meat, onion flakes and sweet pepper flakes. Cover tightly. Simmer over low heat for 1 hour. Cut carrots in half lengthwise and into 2-inch pieces. Cut celery into 2-inch pieces. Add carrots and celery to skillet. Cover and continue simmering for 1 more hour, or until meat and vegetables are fork tender.

NOTE: If desired, an electric skillet can be used for the cooking. Proceed as above. Set skillet temperature at 200°F. for simmering the same length of time.

MINCED MEAT BALLS AND SPAGHETTI

(Makes 6 to 8 servings OR 24 2-inch diameter meat balls)

1 pound ground round steak
½ pound ground pork
½ cup grated onions (medium size)
1 clove garlic, minced
2 tablespoons dry bread crumbs
1 tablespoon parsley flakes
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 (9-oz.) package condensed mince meat
⅓ cup flour
¼ cup olive oil
¼ cup butter
2 (15¾ oz.) cans meatless marinara sauce (about 4 cups)
Hot cooked spaghetti (6 to 8 servings)
1 (8-oz.) container grated Parmesan and Romano cheese

In large mixing bowl, combine ground round steak and pork, onions, garlic, bread crumbs, parsley flakes, salt, pepper and beaten egg. Mix well. Shape one-half of the meat mixture into 24 one-inch diameter balls (1 level tablespoon each). Set aside on waxed paper. On another piece of waxed paper, break mince meat into small pieces with a fork. Shape into 24 one-half inch diameter balls (1 heaping teaspoon mince meat each). Set aside on waxed paper. With thumb, make an intentation in center of each meat ball. Place a mince meat ball in each indentation. With remaining meat mixture, cover each portion of mince meat, allowing 1 level tablespoon of meat for each. Roll meat balls into round shapes, so mince meat is sealed inside. Dip shaped meat balls into the flour. Heat oil and butter in large skillet. Add meat balls and brown on all sides. Remove from skillet. Pour off drippings. Return meat balls to skillet. Add marinara sauce. Cover and simmer 1 hour. To serve, pour over hot cooked spaghetti. Sprinkle with grated Parmesan and Romano cheese.

MINCE MEAT BARBECUED LAMB SHANKS

(Makes 6 servings)

⅓ cup flour
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon pepper
6 lamb shanks (4 pounds)
¼ cup vegetable oil
1⅓ cups ready-to-use mince meat
¾ cup hot water
¼ cup lemon juice
2 tablespoon instant minced onions
1 cup diced green pepper

In pie plate or shallow dish, combine flour, salt and pepper. Coat lamb shanks with flour mixture. Heat oil in large skillet over medium heat. Add shanks and brown on all sides. Reduce heat. Combine mince meat, hot water, lemon juice and onions. Pour over the shanks. Cover tightly. Simmer 1½ hours. Turn shanks occasionally during cooking period. Add green pepper. Cover and simmer 15 minutes longer. Serve hot with cooked rice.

Fix Your Own Cornbread Mix

If you enjoy the satisfaction of making things "from scratch" we urge you to try this Homemade Cornbread Mix recipe. You can concoct delightful cornbread and other good things in jigtime once the basic Mix is at hand.

HOMEMADE CORNBREAD MIX

5 cups sifted flour
⅓ cup baking powder
4 teaspoons salt
5 cups enriched white cornmeal
2 cups nonfat dry milk solids
1 cup shortening

Sift together three times the flour, baking powder, salt and cornmeal. Stir in the nonfat dry milk solids. With a pastry blender, cut in the shortening until the mixture looks like coarse crumbs. Store in a tightly covered container in a cool dry place. Makes about 13 cups.

EXTRA SPECIAL CORNBREAD

1 egg
1 cup water
2½ cups Homemade Cornbread Mix
¼ cup butter or margarine, melted

In a mixing bowl, beat the egg to combine yolk and white; add water and beat to combine. Add the Homemade Cornbread Mix melted butter; stir only until the Mix is dampened. Pour into a greasaed cake pan (9 by 9 by 1¾ inches). Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven for 25 minutes or until golden brown and cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cut into squares in pan and remove with spatula; serve at once, while cornbread is piping hot, so eaters can split and slather with butter.

Note: For a less rich, thicker cornbread, omit the butter or margarine and bake in an 8 by 8 by 2 inch cake pan at the same temperature for the same time. Reconstituted nonfat dry milk or regular milk may be substituted for the water in this version.

CORNMEAL DUMPLINGS FOR MEAT STEW

1 egg
1 cup Homemade Cornbread Mix

In a small mixing bowl, beat the egg enough to blend yolk and white. Add water and beat to blend. Add the Mix; stir lightly until blended. Drop by tablespoons (in 8 portions) onto boiling meat stew. Cover tightly; cook 12 to 15 minutes without lifting cover; serve at once. Or drop batter by tablespoonfuls (in 8 portions) onto extremely hot meat stew. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven about 20 minutes; serve at once.

CORNMEAL PASTRY FOR CHICKEN PIE

2 cups Homemade Cornbread Mix
¼ cup shortening
6 tablespoons (about) cold water

Cut the shortening into the Mix until it looks like coarse crumbs. With a fork, mix in the cold water, a tablespoon at a time, until pastry can be formed into a ball. Add an extra tablespoon of water if necessary to have dough hold together. Turn out on lightly floured board or canvas. Divide dough in half; roll out one half to form a 13-inch circle. Fit loosely into a 9-inch pie pan. Trim, allowing ¼-inch beyond rim. Roll rest of dough to form an 11-inch circle; cut slits to allow steam to escape. Fill bottom crust with hot cooked chicken pie filling. Adjust top crust over filling. Fold top crust under bottom crust; flute. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven for 20 to 25 minutes. Allow to stand for about 5 minutes before cutting and serving.

Brazil Nuts Make Nice Party Snacks

Such doings with Brazil nuts!

Once upon a time they appeared in the bottom of Christmas stockings as a special treat. Nowadays they're used all fall and winter in cakes and puddings and as an hors d'oeuvre.

Some time ago a good cook discovered you could make the nuts into savory chips, and now each season the chips appear in different guise — their seasonings varied. Here's the latest version we've tried.

Other ways to use Brazil nuts as an hors d'oeuvre is to chop them fine and roll balls of cheese in them. Serve these with tomato juice as a first course in the living room. Or make up one of your cheese dips, garnish lavishly with the chopped nuts and serve as a spread with crackers.

Just in case you're not up on the shelling trick: Put Brazil nuts (in their shells) in the freezer overnight so the shells will get brittle and be easier than usual to crack.

NEW BRAZIL NUT CHIPS

1½ cups shelled Brazil nuts
½ teaspoon onion salt
½ teaspoon celery salt
2 tablespoons butter, melted
¼ teaspoon tabasco sauce
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Cover the nuts with cold water; bring slowly to a boil; simmer for 2 to 3 minutes. Drain and cut into thin — no more than ⅛-inch thick — lengthwise slices. Spread out in a shallow pan. Sprinkle with onion and celery salt. Mix butter, tabasco and Worcestershire; dribble over nuts. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 12 to 15 minutes, stirring several times. Cool. Store in tightly covered container. Makes about 2 cups chips.

French Of Normandy Prefer Chicken With Apple Brandy

The rich soil of the Normandy section of France provides the means for many wonderful meals, and the Normans make the most of foods their land produces. Below is a recipe for Poulet a la Vallee d'Auge—chicken prepared with Calvados, the apple brandy of the region.

The recipe is from International Dining with Spice Islands, the new guide to foods of the world that provides instructions on how to form a food exploration club, and menus and recipes of nine countries. Also shown in the photo above is Riz Amandine (almond rice) and Tomatoes Grillees (tarragon grilled tomatoes).

2 large (3 lb. frying chicken*
½ cup butter
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup Calvados
2 tablespoons chicken seasoned stock base
2 tablespoons shredded parsley
1 teaspoon fines herbes
½ teaspoon thyme
2 cups white dinner wine
2 tablespoons arrowroot
¼ cup water
1 cup light cream (½ and ½)

Wipe chicken; saute' in butter in a large heavy skillet. Sprinkle with salt during cooking. When well-browned pour Calvadoes over chicken; carefully light with a long wooden match. Spoon pan juices over chicken during flaming. Combine Chicken Stock Base, Parsley, Fines Herbes, Thyme and wine. Add to chicken when flame is extinguished. Cover and simmer 30 to 40 minutes until chicken is tender. Blend Arrowroot into water. Stir into pan juices, until mixture thickens and boils. Remove from heat. Stir in cream until blended. Serve at once. Serving for eight.

* You may use 8 chicken breasts and thighs, if desired.

POULET A LA VALLEE D'AUGE

Hot Dressing Tasty Over Slaw Salad

Minute Steaks Potatoes
Pimiento Slaw with Hot Dressing
Bread Tray
Strawberry Shortcake
Beverage

PIMIENTO SLAW WITH HOT DRESSING

4 to 6 cups shredded cabbage
1 can or jar (4 ounces) pimientos, drained and chopped
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
2 tablespoons sugar
1½ teaspoons prepared yellow mustard
½ cup cider vinegar
Salt and pepper
Celery seed

Mix together the cabbage and pimientos. In the top of a double boiler, stir together the egg yolks, milk, sugar and mustard. Cook and stir constantly over hot (not boiling) water until slightly thickened. Pour hot dressing over cabbage mixture; at once add vinegar and mix well. Add salt and pepper to taste and a few pinches of celery seed. Add more sugar if you like a sweet slaw.

Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Eggplant Good When Reheated

Cube an eggplant, slice an onion, add canned tomatoes and seasonings and cook a while. Then for extra, but subtle, flavor add pitted ripe olives and grated Parmesan. The result? A delicious vegetable dish: taste-full company for hamburgers, chops, steak, venison or wild duck. Don't worry if there is some left. Eggplant San Joaquin is great, reheated.

EGGPLANT SAN JOAQUIN

(Serves 6 to 8)

1 large eggplant, diced
1 (No. 2½) can tomatoes
1 large onion, sliced
Salt and pepper
Pinch of basil
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
1 cup pitted ripe olives

Combine eggplant, tomatoes and onion in a heavy skillet. Add seasonings and cook, covered, for 20 minutes or until eggplant is tender. Stir in cheese and olives about ten minutes before serving. To get every good drop, serve in individual sauce dishes.

Good Trick

Ever use a string for slicing hot Boston brown bread? Good trick. All homemade mixes should be prepared with a fat that does not need refrigeration.

Supervisors Are Warned On Spending

A warning that the county's wallet should mostly be kept tight-buttoned was given Marin supervisors yesterday by Auditor-Controller Michael Mitchell.

In a report provided at request of the supervisors, Mitchell said that "appropriations made thus far this fiscal year have been at a record high level—$42,606," leaving $257,394 available from the unappropriated reserve fund for the rest of the year.

Said Mitchell:

"In view of the magnitude of the appropriations made at such an early period of the new fiscal year, I would recommend that extremely prudent and conservative reviews be made as a prerequisite to further appropriations."

Corresponding figures for the last three fiscal years showed outlays of $18,825, $10,048 and $21,854 as against this year's $42,606, said Mitchell.

12 Students Commended For Tests

Twelve students from the San Rafael High School District have received letters of commendation for "outstanding performance" in the National Merit Scholarship qualifying tests last spring.

San Rafael High School students commended were: Robert N. Black, Gail Hermann, Steve Jensen, Richard Raznikov, William F. Walker and Martha A. Wilson.

Terra Linda High School students commended were Elizabeth Bloomer, Judith Kollgaard, Mary Sue Philp, Margaret Raby, Barbara Rosenquist and Susan West.

Six students from San Rafael High School and five students from Terra Linda High School have qualified as semifinalists for the National Merit Scholarship competition next spring.

Beacon Editor Is Reprimanded

The editor of the Beacon, thrice-weekly College of Marin newsletter, was reprimanded by the student executive council yesterday for publishing what the council termed an editorial run as a news story about student drinking at the Oct. 18 football game.

The Beacon's story also said the Student Union that night was "left like a pig pen."

Some council members held out for the right of editor James McCarthy of Hamilton Air Force Base to express himself, but the majority held his opinions should be labeled as editorials.

Tools, Chain Saw Stolen From Ranch

Thieves broke into a garage on an Ignacio ranch, stole two boxes of tools and a chain saw, and tipped over and damaged other larger tools they left behind, sheriff's officers learned Monday.

Donald A. Dustman, 2090 Novato Boulevard, said the hasp was pried off a sliding metal door on the building near Bel Marin Keys. He said his loss from damage and theft was $1,000.

School Board Policy Shift Construed As Face-Slap

Closed meetings, even when permitted under the law, do not give government boards any license to break the rules of common sense and thoughtful good manners.

This point was driven home recently by a complaint from one of the applicants for the job of vice-principal at San Rafael High School.

The San Rafael Board of Education had at first limited applications to employees of the district. But after seeing the applications, the board decided to throw the job open to all comers.

E. B. Gearhart, head of business education at San Rafael High School, saw this as a slap in the face for himself and for the eight other staff members who had applied for the job.

The board appeared to be saying, after looking at the field of applicants, that none of the district's own people was qualified for the position.

Gearhart withdrew his application in a letter to the board that lamented the "scar" this had put on personnel relations in the district.

The state education code permits school boards to hold closed meetings when considering appointments to jobs, presumably to avoid embarrassment for applicants. But even with closed sessions the San Rafael School Board managed to cause embarrassment.

Perhaps if the meetings had not been closed, the board might have been more circumspect. It might have considered the implications of its move, and in the interest of plain good manners, it might have seen that opening applications to all at the outset would have been the most tactful tactic.

An Old-Time Jack-O-Lantern

Having been retired from the jack-o'-lantern business for many years, last year we decided to make one for someone who was visiting our house from a foreign land.

It was quite an experience. We found a big, beautiful pumpkin and commenced surgery — ala Ben Casey. Knife! Spoon! Pan!

The insides of a pumpkin, we found, were much more slimy than we remembered them. In fact, we were orange slime halfway to the elbows.

But the end product pleased us. A jack-o'lantern with a pleasantly cynical smile.

Fair Offer To Assemblyman Conrad

By courtesy of Charles J. Conrad, minority floor leader in the California State Legislature, we have received a white card bearing the third stanza of the Star Spangled Banner in red and blue ink.

This stanza seems chiefly notable for embalming the motto "In God is our trust," an admirable sentiment but one we had deemed well covered through its use on those big silver cart-wheels prevalent in Reno and Las Vegas.

If Mr. Conrad is willing to swap we will let him have his card back even-Steven against the motto on enduring metal, a fitting method of preservation as we see the matter. After all he should like the thought that by this means he would be giving us something we could keep and cherish and even earn interest upon.

FRANCE ISN'T ANTI-AMERICAN

Paris Feels That Frictions Arise Only From Pro-France Stand

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Analyst

IN THE LIGHT of nearly two centuries of close relations between the United States and France, it seems sad now that Paris feels it must explain that it is not anti-American.

That there are frictions between the two, and that these frictions have been increasing for nearly a year, there can be no denying. But from the French point of view they can be explained by saying they arise from policies which are not anti-American but instead are pro-French.

And so any study of the differences between the two first must settle on a definition of terms.

THUS President De Gaulle can say that France is determined to be independent of both the United States and the Soviet Union.

And his spokesmen at the same time can deny that De Gaulle aspires to leadership of a third force.

At any rate, in the last few days prominent Frenchmen have gone out of their way to deny that De Gaulle's policies either are anti-American or are leading France into isolation from its allies.

One such spokesman was French ambassador to the United States Herve Alphand, who in a speech in San Francisco pointed out that France retains her firm commitment to defense of the west.

ANOTHER was French Foreign Minister Couve De Murville in an interview with the French publication "Notre Republique."

He also declared that in defending the interests of the West, including those of Germany, there likewise were no differences between the United States and France.

The French foreign minister is reported anxious for a meeting between De Gaulle and President Kennedy, perhaps as early as February.

But regardless of whether the French position is anti-American or simply pro-French, there are in the approach to world affairs important differences and in the opinion of many the gap between the two is widening.

THERE IS agreement that changing conditions warrant a revision of the NATO structure but total disagreement as to how it should be done.

The French have suggested that other European nations might participate with her in an independent nuclear force which could include Britain if she were to forego her close ties with the United States. The suggestion was rejected by both Britain and West Germany.

On the other hand, the U. S. proposal for a multi-nation nuclear naval force within NATO is far enough advanced that discussion of details may start soon. West Germany backs the U. S. plan.

THE FRENCH position is that a revived Europe has outgrown the time when it was forced to rely upon the United States for help and guidance.

The French resent U. S. efforts which they believe are attempting to force the West Germans to decide between Washington and Paris.

They disagree with U. S. efforts to keep lines open to Moscow on the grounds that it gives the Soviets the initiative in the subjects to be discussed. They also disagree with what seems to be a U. S. tendency to side with Moscow in the Moscow-Peking dispute. They believe a policy of strict neutrality is called for.

Problem Of Litter Brings Complaint

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Much as we enjoy your newspaper, we resent picking up the litter left daily on our grounds by your carriers.

Would you please see if something could be done about this problem, not only at the club but elsewhere in the city?

Perhaps you could provide trash cans for those spots where you deposit papers.

Stress Information, Not Comment

Editor, Independent-Journal:

From an historian's point of view, the newspaper is vital for it represents the history of one day and becomes the record for the ages through the modern process of micro-filming.

The success of a newspaper depends on being the maximum of information and minimum in comment, which promotes careful reading by the people who can learn more in a year than most scholars may learn in our great libraries.

In these times we fight for ideas and newspapers are our fortresses. They constantly reveal there can be no effective moral housecleaning without exposure proof of wrong-doing and an awakened public conscience.

On the other hand, we may wonder what the impact of drip, drip, drip of icy criticisms may be upon those of our citizens who have no sense of history. I feel sure many historians may accept our newspaper as a whispering gallery for mankind, where quite often the whispers become thunders that create a vital mark in the historical records.

Newspapers have become, and are becoming every day in greater degree, the most important function as our greatest reliable "Illustrator of the past as a guide to our future."

United Nations Is Still Newsworthy

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I note with regret that your newspaper carried no mention of the 18th anniversary of United Nations Day.

One hundred and fifty women from Marin turned up to hear Dr. Charles E. Larsen of Mills College speak with candor and knowledge on what the United Nations can and cannot do.

It is a factor in our national life and newsworthy, I believe.

For Economy In Building Schools

Editor, Independent-Journal:

I am interested in learning from reliable sources whether the superstructure of ranch type schools could not be built to three and four stories of classroom expansion without any variation of design. Out-building stairways or safely rising ramps similar to down town garages may serve such needs.

Most of the present school buildings have tar and gravel roofs with a life expectancy of 12 to 15 years. At the rate of the present population growth an entirely new level of classrooms may well be in order within a period of re-roofing the lower level.

The cost of acquiring new areas for school sites, at times well outside of walking distance for pupils, could be beneficial also. The six to ten-year-old generation could remain at ground levels, and the older and stronger would have a daily chance to comply with Pres. John F. Kennedy's physical health program.

I believe it would be generally more acceptable than the foot blistering 50 mile hikes with the prospect of staying home from school due to physical exhaustion.

My suggestions are based on economy since I do consider myself a segment of the tax paying public.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

Former Mayor John F. Hylan suffered a minor debacle the day he delivered a speech that he had not bothered to read over in advance. Along about Page Five he came to one phrase that read, "This reminds me of my favorite story about a traveling salesman."

It developed that the Mayor had never heard the joke before, and he laughed so hard his glasses fell off and smashed on the floor. The chairman of the dinner finished the speech for him.

Pierre Boule, the man who wrote "Bridge on the River Kwai," has just had a new book published in France called "The Planet of the Monkeys," which will be put on the presses in America as soon as it is translated. Boule's new story is a shocker. The time is several hundred years hence — and mankind has retrogressed to the pithecanthropoid stage—a creature with no brains to speak of, orating from instinct. The monkeys, meanwhile, have become so smart from imitating humans and playing parts in innumerable experiments that they now run the works. They have put men into cages, and it's the monkeys who are conducting the experiments on humans. Pretty prospect to contemplate!

Brown Accepts Pay Boost, But That Only Starts The Tale

SACRAMENTO — Speculation is rife concerning the action of Gov. Edmund G. Brown in deciding to take his pay boost almost a year overdue.

The governor notified Alan Cranston, state controller, that he now will accept $44,100 annually, instead of his previous salary of $40,000 per year.

Legally Brown has been entitled to the increase for a year or more, as the result of two five per cent pay raises approved for all state employees since he took office.

The increase makes Brown the highest paid governor in the United States with the exception of Nelson Rockefeller of New York, whose annual salary is $50,000. Now that California is "first" in size in the nation, no doubt Brown feels it should be first in pay.

THE SPECULATION, however is not over a $4,100 increase in annual salary for the governor but what he proposes to do.

Several courses are open to Brown. He can remain as governor of California and when he retires, draw $17,640 pension under the new salary increase.

He could, if Sen. Clair Engle's health does not improve and if Engle resigns from the U. S. senatorship, engineer an appointment to that office, and turn over the reins of state government to Lt.-Gov. Glenn M. Anderson. If this happened, Brown would receive the salary of a United States Senator, as well as a pension of $17,640 annually.

He could have made a deal with President Kennedy for an appointment to the United States Supreme Court in the event of a resignation, which is expected soon. If this is the case, and it seems a bit far-fetched, he would draw the salary of a supreme court justice as well as his pension of $17,640 from the state of California.

THE LATTER is not without precedent. Former Gov. Earl Warren, now chief justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, draws approximately $12,000 annually from the taxpayers of California while he also draws his salary as supreme court chief justice.

The best speculation centers on the office of U. S. senator. It is fairly well conceded that Engle won't be a candidate again, but it is not known now whether he will resign before his term is over to give the job to another California Democrat. The odds seem against this, as no U. S. senator has ever resigned on account of illness.

But even if Brown does nothing and remains as California's governor, he still will benefit to the extent of $1,640 per year by accepting the additional salary to which he is entitled under the law.

INCIDENTALLY, the decision of Brown will result in a pension increase for ex-Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, whose remuneration is dependent on the governor's salary. Knight's pension will be increased to $17,640, the amount Brown would get if he were retired.

Both Brown and Knight are under the legislators retirement system, while Warren is under the state employees system. The legislators system is much more liberal than the set-up for state employees.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Swap Of Soviet Scientists With U.S. Stirs Alarm

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — With the State Department, it's apparently an incurable case of "hope springs eternal."

Despite the Kremlin's sudden and unexplained jarring freeze of the loudly touted East-West "thaw," the State Department is optimistically pushing a new proposal for U. S. - Soviet "cooperation" on disarmament.

As fondly fathered by Secretary Dean Rusk, it contemplates "joint biology-for-peace research."

IN CONCRETE terms, what that means is the exchange of scientists and information dealing with aspects of germ and chemical weapons and the defenses against them.

To State Department associates, Rusk has portrayed his backstage plan as a "long first step toward the eventual outlawing of biological warfare."

He also informed them that Foreign Minister Gromyko evinced "deep interest" in the project during their discussions at the United Nations several weeks ago. So far as is known, Rusk has not indicated whether he thought there was any connection between his scheme and Gromyko's latest observation that "we're making no progress whatsoever (in lessening tensions)."

MEMBERS of the Senate Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee have gotten wind of Rusk's move and are highly suspicious of it. They want to know more about it, and steps are underway to obtain that information.

This committee, headed by Sen. John Stennis, (D-Miss.), was highly critical of the nuclear test ban treaty. The committee conducted its own hearings, and issued an unfavorable report.

Stennis and other committeemen were among the leaders of the unavailing fight to reject the pact.

PARTICULARLY disturbing these senators is the fact that under Rusk's proposal, Senate approval would not be necessary to put it into effect.

Under a ruling by the State Department's legal officer, the Senate could be bypassed on the ground this was an exchange of information and research similar to other agreements of that kind between the U. S. and Russia.

These include various "cultural" exchanges, and the recent understandings on the exchange of information obtained from weather and communications satellites.

None of these bilateral accords has been submitted to the Senate, and no challenge of that has been raised.

BUT Senate Preparedness committeemen view Rusk's unannounced "biology - for-peace research" plan as falling into an entirely different "exchange" category.

That's why they deem it essential to be kept fully informed of what is transpiring to ensure that the Senate is not ignored.

10 YEARS AGO

Marin taxpayers were found by a San Francisco Bay Area Council report to have paid the highest costs of any Bay Area county to educate elementary and high school students during 1951-52.

Except for emergency use, no more steam engines were to be run on Northwestern Pacific's line from Tiburon north to Eureka.

Fred W. Panhorst, assistant state highway engineer, declared that "the old redwood bridge across Richardson Bay is going to be replaced some day" and that funds might turn up in the 1954-55 budget.

20 YEARS AGO

Word was received that Clarence Burton and Ethelwyn C. Day of San Anselmo and William S. Elliott of Sausalito were among 1,236 American repatriates aboard the Japanese exchange liner Teia Maru for Portuguese East India after Japanese captivity. They were to proceed to New York by the Swedish liner Gripsholm.

San Quentin prisoners, denied permission to fight the Germans and Japanese, oversubscribed a war bond quota more than 1,000 per cent and were allowed to name a bomber "Bad Check" hoping that "it will always come back."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

You're Driving An Armored Car Even If You Don't Know It

NOT LONG ago a reserve deputy sheriff pumped bullets into a small foreign car in a wild chase down Mount Tamalpais.

Eleven shots didn't seem to faze the car or the driver. A change to a more powerful pistol brought the car to a halt.

A week later the results of a study were announced which could have saved the county some lead. The study, made by a sheriff's department in Wisconsin which happened to have some old cars on hand, indicated that just about every automobile is an armored car.

THE CAR on Mount Tamalpais was finally stopped when a bullet knocked off its oil pan. This hit was pure luck. The car might, conceivably, have kept going until it ran out of gas.

Some interesting thoughts arise. John Dillinger drove an armored car par excellence It has been on display for years at the beach in San Francisco, bullet holes and all.

Each year the federal government pays a heap of money to buy the president a new model car, also armored.

Other such cars are sold to potentates abroad.

We can imagine some hotshot salesman pumping a bunch of bullets into a car and then taking it on tour, offering an "armored car" cheap.

IN THE Wisconsin tests, various guns and bullets were used. Officers were especially chagrined when bullets ricchocheted off the standard-glass windows.

Automobiles aren't really designed to be used in the front line. In fact, the steel of the bodies is thinner now than it used to be. But it's better steel.

The real problem, however, is that there is a maze of bracing, handles, locks, window openers and other gadgets which almost always manage to get in the way.

ONE TYPE of bullet was effective, however — maybe too effective. Police can buy this designed to be fired from a shotgun, but rifled, since shotgun barrels are smooth.

This type of bullet will penetrate a car easily, usually going through and out the other side. It could probably shoot holes through a tank, although the Wisconsin deputies didn't get a chance to find out.

The big problem here is that usually police do not want to hit the driver if they can avoid it. Nobody wants a driverless car careening through traffic. Also, the car may have helpless passengers.

BUT AS FAR as stopping the car is concerned, dextrous use of radio communications and roadblocks probably offer better, safer chances. On that Mount Tam chase three other patrol cars were speeding to the area to help.

The most vulnerable parts of the car were found to be the tires and the radiator. The radiator, of course, can't be hit from behind. From in front, other tactics are available.

Tires are also a tricky business unless two cars are almost next to each other.

If you drive 16 mph in a California alley you are breaking the law. A law which went into effect recently says alley-drivers must observe a 15 mph limit.

Bullion Bend, located in the Mother Lode Country, was famous for early day stage robberies.

ART BUCHWALD

In Hollywood, A Phone For Car Is Latest Status Symbol

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif.—The latest status symbol in Hollywood is a telephone in your automobile.

Anybody who is anybody has one and it certainly fulfills a function. If, for example, you go into a drive-in movie at night, you can call the baby-sitter without leaving.

If you're driving while drunk, you can call Alcoholics Anonymous and they'll send a tow car to talk you out of it. If you want to get out of a date, you can always call up and say you're tied up in traffic.

A FRIEND of ours, Bill Dana, who plays Jose Jiminez on television, has a phone in his Cadillac and the other day we decided to call him.

But we didn't have his number, so we called the phone company and said, "I'd like the phone number of Bill Dana. He was last seen driving a black Cadillac down the San Diego Freeway."

The operator came back in a few minutes and said, "I'm sorry, he has an unlisted number."

Having an unlisted phone in your car is about as high on the status hog as you can get.

"WELL, DO YOU know of any cars near him who might give him a message?" we asked.

"I'm sorry. You might try the telephone answering service. It's a Greyhound bus that drives around town taking messages for mobile telephones."

We called the answering service and they said Mr. Dana would probably cross Hollywood and Vine in 20 minutes and they'd give him the message.

Sure enough, 20 minutes later Mr. Dana called us.

BUT BEFORE we could tell him what we wanted, he said, "Could I call you back? I've got Cary Grant on 'hold.'"

Five minutes later he called again. "I'm sorry. I've been so busy, but everyone seems to be calling me today."

"Where are you now?" we asked him.

"At Vermont and Wilshire. I had to call my agent and I was getting very bad reception on Vine Street."

"How come you have an unlisted number in your car?" we asked him.

"I DON'T WANT everyone to call me at all hours of the night. I might have a girl in the car."

"Listen, Bill. The reason I called is . . ."

"Can you hold on a second? I have to buy some gas."

"Bill, what I wanted to know was . . ."

"I haven't any more dimes," Dana said.

"Do you have a pay phone in your car?!!"

Moroccan Economy Might Suffer By Taking Lands

By NANCY DUGHI
Worldwide Press Service

RABAT — The monarchist government of Morocco is now doing what its socialist opposition never dared to threaten. It is confiscating the lands of French colonists, without reimbursement. The Moroccan economy may suffer as a result.

The government take-over is due before this year's crop of oranges, the main produce affected, can be harvested. And farm experts here are dubious about the ability of Moroccan agriculturists to handle the picking and marketing of the citrus crop.

The majority of the French managers or owners of the confiscated plantations have refused the government's request that they stay to help through the winter season. Their exodus back to France has already begun.

TAKES EVERYTHING

The confiscation decree is interpreted to mean that the government will expropriate not only any plantation larger than 135 acres, but also the buildings and the equipment (tractors, generators, etc.) belonging to it.

The government had apparently hoped to retain the present managers by putting them on the Moroccan payroll.

Owners who live on their farms will be offered jobs as managers. But their homes — the cool, white farmhouses which they built themselves — will belong to the state.

FARMERS SCOFF

French farmers scoff that the plan is naive at best. Still, they do not seem to feel the rancour and bitterness that Frenchmen in Algeria did when their lands were expropriated.

France has recently extended to Morocco millions of francs in credit, and the French farmers have some hope that part of this money may be used to reimburse them for their confiscated properties.

Some of these farmers are older men who came to Morocco as Foreign Legionnaires and either bought desert land for a few francs an acre or were given lots by the French government.

The Moroccan government claims that these sales and grants were illegal if not outright thefts. It admits that the French cultivated the land and made the desert fertile, but says the French have already been well paid for their efforts and that there is no need to pay them more now.

Ardent supporters of pro-Western King Hassan II cannot understand why his government's expropriation move should upset either the French land owners or would-be investors in this potentially wealthy country.

But less partisan Moroccans see considerably danger in this sudden expulsion of the experts who brought in foreign credit, who hired the majority of the unskilled labor, and who kep the little towns of the fertile Western Quarter alive with commerce.

Says one semi-skilled worker: "Why not let them keep their farms? At least the French spend their money to keep things going. When an Arab is rich, he just hides his money."

When the man is told that the farms will not be privately owned but will belong to the government—ergo, to him too—he just snorts.

"Rabat — that's where the money will go. And from there to Geneva. Not here," he adds, patting his stomach.

Airman Fails To Appear In Court

Paul M. Mededith, as expected, did not appear in court yesterday for the start of his trial on armed robbery and auto theft.

Meredith, who was free on $5,250 bail from Marin County, had previously jumped $52,500 bail in Sonoma County, where he was charged with kidnaping.

The 23-year-old airman from Hamilton Air Force Base was accused of the $6,275 holdup of the San Rafael office of Household Finance Corp.

Dist. Atty. Roger Garety asked that the bail in Marin County be forfeited. Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. agreed and issued a bench warrant for Meredith's arrest, setting the new bail at $50,000.

Navy Commendation Given To Marinite

Weaver Meadows of 5 Baltus Lane, Sleepy Hollow, a College of Marin faculty member, has won a Navy commendation and plaque for his work in setting up the "Blue and Gold Program" for the Naval Academy.

Meadows, a captain in the Naval reserve, organized the program in the 12th Naval District through finding representatives in 12 high schools strategically located throughout the district. They tell youngsters of the program offered by the academy and encourage top students to apply. All the representatives are high school teachers who are in the Naval reserve.

Student Accreditation Group Set At San Rafael High

A student accreditation committee at San Rafael High School will start to compile its report even though the accreditation program has been postponed because of upcoming construction at the school.

The student group will extend its accreditation work over two years instead of one, reported Charles Fesler, student body adviser.

Civil Rights Bill Given Backing

The Marin Branch of Women's International League for Peace and Freedom Monday night supported passage of the House civil rights bill as it now stands.

"Of course, we are concerned that it will be difficult to get this bill (HR 7152) passed," said Trudy Kanner, president of the Marin Branch. "However, we feel the time is long overdue for firm action on civil rights."

Guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting Monday was Douglas Quiett of Marin City, chairman of the Marin congress of Racial Equality.

Next meeting of the branch will be Nov. 25 at the home of Gertrude York, 532 Shoreline Highway, Tamalpais Valley.

Christmas Cards To Benefit Cancer Group

Marin residents may purchase cards for the coming Christmas season and help in the fight against cancer at the same time, according to the Marin Branch of the American Cancer Society.

Cards in both traditional and modern styles may be obtained by making donations to the society, 18 Mary Street, San Rafael.

How To Solve Reading Problems Described

How Kentfield School District First through Third grade pupils are helped to lick reading problems was described to the district board Monday night at a meeting devoted to four curriculum reports.

Administrative Asst. Anthony G. Bacich and guidance consultant Jack Williams reported on perception and memory tests to "discover precisely what is causing the reading problem" of some pupils.

In a separate report Bacich told of a study being made by several Kentfield teachers for an ungraded primary program.

Principal George Stratton of Greenbrae and Wolfe Grade schools described a study of team teaching for Fourth through Sixth grade pupils being made by him, along with Supt. Howard C. Harmon, Bacich, and a half dozen Wolfe Grade School teachers.

Principal Dan Woodard of Adaline E. Kent School reported on a study being made there of team teaching of Seventh and Eighth grade pupils.

Peter Skaer of the architects' firm of Corlett and Spackman displayed preliminary sketches of ways to build a roofed corridor across Stadium Way to link the old and new buildings of Kent School. Trustees continued this to Nov. 11.

Harmon reported formation of the Kentfield School District Teachers ssn. and introduced its president-elect, Kent Eighth grade teacher John Richard.

County Asked Plans For Lucas Valley Property

George Banning of the San Rafael architectural firm designing a county juvenile treatment center told Marin County supervisors yesterday it would be helpful to know something of plans for developing the county's 90-acre Lucas Valley property.

Banning said he felt something more should be known as to other contemplated construction.

Chairman William D. Fusselman said that at one time everything was settled, including construction of a new county hospital, but later developments, including bond vote failures, had upset this scheduling. He asked Public Works Director Donald R. Frost to appear next week with a map of the area as preliminary to new planning.

Broken terrain rules out of consideration all but about 40 of the total 90 acres, said Fusselman.

Banning expressed enthusiasm for the treatment center project which he termed "something delightful to work on—a new thing, with some exploration in it." He said he wanted to reassure neighbors that the design would be in harmony with the residential character of the area. Simplicity will be its keynote, he said.

Electronic Materials On Sale At Air Base

Electric and electronic materials have been offered at a "bid sale" at the Surplus Sales Office, Bldg. 27, Hamilton Air Force Base.

Items may be inspected from 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday through Friday, excluding holidays, until Nov. 15. Bids will be opened at the Oakland Defense Surplus Sales Office at Bldg. 502, Naval Supply Center, at 1 p.m. on Nov. 15.

Sausalito Summer Rec Plan Approved

Sausalito School District trustees Monday night approved use of Bayside School facilities for a six-week summer recreation program next year.

The program is proposed by the Bayside School Parent-Teacher Assn., to be worked out with the Sausalito Recreation Commission.

Trustees also adopted a policy whereby outstanding kindergarten pupils who are five-plus-still may be promoted into the first grade.

Dr. Charles Nagel of the county schools office told the board about the "compensatory education" project for "culturally deprived children", and said it is planned to invite Marie Fielder to conduct in-service training for the teachers. Miss Fielder is working in the same field for Berkeley schools.

Morris Brown, principal of Manzanita School, reported ungraded program there is "working very successfully" and may be expanded next year.

Ralph Magnuson, Bayside and Central School principal, reported a program for "gifted" children with about 100 pupils is to be started soon.

Noah Adair, mathematics teacher at Richardson Bay School told the board the mathematics program for parents is "very successful." Classes are at 7 p.m. each Tuesday at the school.

The board will meet Monday at 8 p.m. with Mill Valley School district trustees to discuss Tennessee Valley land annexation and will hold a regular meeting Nov. 13. There will be no meeting Nov. 11 due to the Veterans Day holiday.

Nagel and Supt. Marcus T. Davis will attend a conference at University of California at Los Angeles, Nov. 8-9 on "Education of the Disadvantaged American."

Rep. Miller Left Estate Of $622,805

Rep. Clem Miller of Corte Madera left an estate of $622,805.47, according to an appraisal filed in Marin County Superior Court by Elaine B. Guthrie, inheritance tax appraiser.

Miller was killed at 45 in a plane crash near Eureka while on a campaign tour Oct. 7, 1962. The congressman was re-elected after his death requiring a special election last Jan. 22 which seated Rep. Donald H. Clausen (R-Crescent City).

The estate included $390,572 in stock of the Hercules Powder Co., $72,517.50 in stock of E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., and $50,582.75 in stock of General Motors Corp.

Miller's Corte Madera property was assessed at $35,000 for the land and $15,000 for improvements. He also owned $18,000 worth of land at Inverness, according to the appraisal.

The congressman, in a will dated March 13, 1964, named his wife as chief beneficiary, but set up a trust fund for the support of Mrs. Miller and their five daughters, aged 8 to 16.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

The Right Way to Play Suit Depends On Need for Tricks

The right way to play a suit often depends on how many tricks you need and how fast you need them. Don't be a creature of habit.

Opening lead — ♣ Q

Before we discuss the full hand, let's look at the diamonds in today's hand.

TWO DIAMONDS

If you needed the first two diamond tricks (for some good reason), you would lead a diamond from dummy and finesse with the queen from your hand. If the finesse worked, you would get the first two diamond tricks. This is the "normal" way of finessing.

If you needed the first three diamond tricks, you would lead the ace of diamonds from your hand.

Your only hope is that an opponent has the singleton king.

FULL HAND

Now, on examining the full hand, you see that you need four diamond tricks, but not necessarily the first four. You can afford to give up one trick along the way.

Any method at all will work if each opponent has three diamonds. You will give up one trick and win the other four.

The normal finesse will fail if the diamonds break 4-2. Even if East has the doubleton K-10, in which case the normal finesse will give you the first two tricks, West will have two tricks with his nine and eight.

FOUR TRICKS

You can win four tricks against a 4-2 break only if West has the doubleton king. The method is to start the suit by leading a low diamond from the South hand.

If West puts up the king, you will clear the rest of the suit with dummy's jack and your own ace and queen. If West fails to put up the king, you will win with dummy's jack and then will capture the king by playing the ace.

Then you take the queen and give East a trick with the nine of diamonds.

ALMANAC

Today is Wednesday, Oct. 30, the 303rd day of 1963 with 62 to follow.

The moon is approaching its full phase. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this day in history:

In 1938, Actor Orson Welles caused a national panic with his radio dramatization of an invasion of New Jersey by men from Mars.

In 1948, an Army transport from Germany arrived in New York City with the first refugees to arrive in the United States under the Displaced Persons Act of 1948.

AAUW Series To Resume On Tuesday

Mrs. Russell E. Wallace, first vice president and membership chairman of the Mill Valley Branch, American Assn. of University Women, announces that monthly morning coffee meetings for new members are planned for the year.

The third in the series will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Harry C. Miller.

The meetings acquaint new members with the history of the association and inform them of various areas of study. They also enable new members to meet informally before they attend the general monthly meetings or specific study section meetings.

Twelve women from 11 colleges or universities in the United States have become members since September. They are Mesdames Eugene Altshuler, Jerry Briscoe, Graham Campbell, Charles Gorrill, M. E. Leonard, and Ralph Livingston.

Others are Mesdames Roy Lundgren, Richard Maeder, Jerome Meislin, Louis Motley Jr., Frazier Sutton, and Gifford von Kaesborg.

A Glimpse Of The New Frontier

By MAYBELLE SPECKMANN

"The principal business of a congressional wife—like that of any wife—is the job of helping her husband in his job."

THIS was what Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's wife "Lady Bird told more than 200 women Monday in her speech at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco.

A delegation of some 25 Marin women was one of the largest among the members and guests of the newly formed Democratic Women of the Bay Area who gathered to honor the Second Lady at a luncheon in the gold room. She had been asked to give some glimpses of life on the New Frontier and what the wife of a vice president does.

Mrs. Johnson was introduced by Marin Democratic leader, Mrs. Albert Gatov, California Democratic national committeewoman and former Treasurer of the United States.

ALSO speaking briefly was Mrs. Edmund G. Brown, wife of California's governor. Both of the prominent guests were pictures of sophisticated elegance, Mrs. Johnson in biege and black and Mrs. Brown in turquoise.

In an unmistakably Texan accent the glamorous "Lady Bird" told how her role has become more and more complicated from the time she went to Washington as a bride in 1934 to the present when she is often called upon "to stand in for either Lyndon or the First Lady."

"I used to go along and say 'Howdy' at barbecues," she said, "but suddenly . . . everything changed. Microphones and pencils and pads were thrust my way . . . and here I am two and a half years later with several speeches behind me."

LIKE the harrassed congressional wife who discovered she had signed a pile of checks "Love, Mary," Mrs. Johnson said she had experienced the hectic life that causes such a state. "Anne Lindbergh called it "fragmentation of self," she recalled.

Speaking of days filled with innumerable duties, she said, "but the day does come when you see the results. You are able to speak Spanish to the President of Bolivia. Lucy's grades improve. The flower show, the Heart Fund and the church bazaar make their goals."

MRS. Johnson praised Jackie Kennedy's elimination of much of the "Stuffiness—the long receiving lines—and made the White House a show case for the great artists, writers and intellectuals of the nation."

Among the other highlights of her talk were her relation of experiences in "Lending a hand on most of the 110,000 miles to 30 foreign countries" traveled by her husband, and as hostess to heads of state and other prominent foreign visitors at their ranch in Texas.

"I OFTEN meet with groups of active women in each country and salute the things they do to try to make life a little bit better for their countrymen," she said.

"It is a thrilling task to represent your country aboard. Lyndon believes firmly that it is important to contact the man on the street as well as the man at the top."

Mrs. Johnson concluded her talk by emphasizing the importance of even the smallest effort in political activity.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Dinner Parties To Precede Sausalito's Theater Opening

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Dinner parties will be given by the Sponsors Friday preceding the opening night presentation by the Sausalito Little Theater of Lillian Hellman's "The Children's Hour."

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Katz will give a dinner for Petaluma friends Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dolowitz, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Horowitz will entertain Messrs. and Mesdames Hal Cox and Richard Dawe.

Don Deane, president of the Sausalito Little Theater, will have as dinner guests Messrs. and Mesdames David Mitchell and Philip Africa and Miss Nan Fowler.

A SURPRISE miscellaneous shower was given for the former Diane Marie Ross, who was married recently to Hunter Albert Schmidt at St. Cecilia's Church in Lagunitas. The afternoon ceremony was followed by a reception at the Woodacre Improvement Club. The newlyweds are residing in San Geronimo Valley. The shower was given by Mesdames Philip Fahy, Stanley Dentkos and John Burke at the latter's home in San Geronimo.

Among the 40 guests were Diane's mother, Mrs. Bernard Ross, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Donald Schmidt.

A DINNER PARTY was given by Mrs. Everett Pozzi of Novato last week when she invited all the employees of the Pozzi Co. to Tomahawk Lodge to honor her husband.

Attending the party were Messrs. and Mesdames Richard Johnson, Robert Mower, David Church, Robert Riley, Alfred Riley, Thomas Redman, Lauren Elkin Jr. and Messrs. James Stockman and Vincent Davi Jr.

MR. AND MRS. IRVING LINKS of Novato have returned from a vacation in Hawaii. While on the island of Kauia, they experienced the tidal wave scare. On their return from the islands, they enjoyed a weekend at Lake Tahoe.

Stretch Shoes

A new spray-on product softens and stretches any tight areas on shoes. Works on leather, fabric, suede or canvas shoes.

One of the nicest things about Lucas Valley Milk is that you really enjoy it! Youngsters especially love its wonderful fresh, creamy flavor—and this makes it a lot easier on you, Mother. You don't have to say "Drink your milk!" when you set a tall, cold glass of Lucas Valley Milk in front of your child. You just say "Here it is"—and watch it disappear!

Bury Wives Tale

CHICAGO (UPI) — Bury that old-wives' tale that cutting the hair makes it grow back coarser and darker, as well as faster.

The fact is, says Dr. Howard T. Behrman, that the regrowth in no way differs from the old when it reaches the former length. Reporting in the Journal of the American Medical Assn., the dermatologist explained that in the case of light-colored hair, the pigmented portion of each hair shaft is of greater diameter near the scalp. After a close cutting the cross-sections of darker and coarser hair are thus exposed. This result is often mistaken for stimulated growth.

Let-Down Afoot For The Damsels

VIGEVANO, Italy (UPI)— The world's leading shoemakers have decreed the end of high, high heels for women—at least for the coming year.

Heels on the shoes shown at the 27th International Shoe Salon did not exceed two and a half inches, and they had wider bases than usual.

Shoes for evening wear followed slim, graceful lines, but unlike those of recent years were rounded on the toes. Women's shoes also featured large openings on the tops and sides.

About 1,500 shoemakers from 12 nations displayed their products at the show, one of the most important in the world.

Vigevano is the shoe capital of Italy, and soon a new building will rise here to house future exhibitions.

In the past 12 years, Italy has almost tripled its shoe production, from 30 million pairs in 1950 to 88 million last year. The estimate for 1963 is 92 million and for 1964, 96 million.

There are more than 63,000 firms that operate in this field in Italy and they employ 145,000 persons. Exports for 1963 are expected to surpass 48 million pairs.

The new members installed were Patsy Bolt, Sue Burns, Jean Douglas, Sally Hasse, Kitsie Lee, Sue McClees, Teri McGinnis, Tam Meredith, Chris Owen, Jane Rowley, Sandra Schwarz, Judy Stai, Mary Stark, Cindy Wirt and Sharon Woelz.

The decoration committee was headed by Lynda Anderson, Betsey Denison and Ginny Tabor. Sandra Bolt and Lynne Fulkerson were in charge of refreshments, and Paula O'Connel and Sandy Schroers were in charge of programs.

Fat Controlled Diet Series Begins Nov. 6

Confused about low-cholesterol diets? Wondering how to pinpoint the difference in saturated and poly-unsaturated fat?

The Marin County Heart Assn. announces a series of three sessions in Meal Planning and Food Preparation for Fat Controlled Diets.

Starting Nov. 6 and continuing Nov. 13 and Nov. 20, at the Pacific Gas and Electric auditorium, San Rafael, instructions will be given from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

ALL three classes are designed for the patient on a low-fat diet or for Marinites cooking for heart patients restricted to low fat menus.

Registration for classes may be made through the Marin County Heart Assn., San Rafael, upon physician referral.

Dr. Robert Cogswell, director, Permanente Medical Group will explain medical aspects of the fat-controlled diet. Low cholesterol diets, low saturated fat diets and low total fat will receive special emphasis.

"ON THE spot" family meal planning and sampling will be directed by dietitians Shirley Sichel and Frances Dahl.

Winding up the third session will be a discussion of holiday menus, solving problems of eating out, permitted snack "goodies" and the conversion of favorite recipes to fit the low fat diet.

Among the "morale boosters" for the low-fat patient to include in his holiday entertaining are the following favorites:

TEREYAKI CANAPES

(6 servings. 1 serving equals 2-oz. cooked beef)

18 oz. sirloin steak
1 tsp. ginger
1 clove garlic, minced
1 small onion, minced
1 tbsp. sugar
¼ cup soy sauce
3 tbsp. water

1. Cut in ½-inch squares sirloin steak. 2. Combine all other ingredients and pour over meat. Let stand 2 hours. 3. Drain. Place meat 1 layer deep, in shallow pan. 4. Broil 1 inch from flame, 5 minutes on first side. Turn; broil 3 min. longer. 5. Heat sauce. 6. Place meat on toothpicks and pour sauce over meat.

COTTAGE CHEESE SPREAD

(About 1¼ cup spread)

1 cup cottage cheese
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
¾ drops tobasco sauce
1 tbsp. minced onions
½ tsp. dill weed
⅛ tsp. salt
few grains pepper
few grains monosodium glutamate

1. Beat cottage cheese until very smooth about 3-4 minutes. 2. Add other ingredients and continue beating until creamy. 3. Use to stuff celery or spread on crackers. 4. Garnish with paprika and sliced olives.

BUTTERSCOTCH BROWNIES

1 cup light brown sugar (packed)
1 egg
¾ cup sifted flour
1 tsp. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
½ tsp. vanilla
½ cup coarsely chopped walnuts

1. Blend oil and sugar. 2. Add egg and stir. 3. Sift flour, baking powder and salt together and stir into egg mixture. 4. Add vanilla and walnuts to batter. 5. Spread in oiled 8x8x2 inch pan. 6. Bake at 350 degrees for 25 minutes. Do not overbake. 7. When slightly cool cut into 18 bars.

Mary Ellen Taylor Weds Nicholas Gilanfar

San Rafael's First Presbyterian Church was the setting for the recent wedding of Mary Ellen Taylor of Novato and Nicholas Gilanfar of San Rafael.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor of Novato.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory brocade accented with a beaded neckline.

Mrs. Matt Farr of San Rafael as matron of honor and Jean Turnauer of San Anselmo as bridesmaid, wore full length gowns of red velvet.

Flower girls were Sherri and Gina Farr.

Fradg Gilan-far of San Rafael was best man for his brother and escorting guests to their seats was Robert Meddiah of Mill Valley.

A reception followed the ceremony at the San Rafael home of the Matt Farrs.

The bride was graduated from Novato High School and Marinello Beauty College. She is employed at The Hairdresser in San Rafael. Lois and Kathleen Taylor of Novato are her sisters and she is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor of Novato.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Sherri Gilanfar of San Rafael, was graduated from high school in Terahan, Iran and Oakland City College. Matt Farr of San Rafael is also his brother.

The newlyweds will reside in San Rafael.

Beaded Blinds

NEW YORK (UPI) — Colorful beads are being used to add a decorator touch to new custom window blinds, styled as Roman shades or room dividers. Vat-dyed cotton, nylon, linen and synthetic fabrics are used and the small beads are either translucent or opaque. Since the beads are plastic and are woven right into the fabric, these fashionable blinds can be kept clean by surface-sponging with suds, followed by rinse-wiping with a damp cloth.

Down To Earth

NEW YORK (UPI) — As the mother-to-be gains weight, the additional strain on her feet may make them larger. Advises the Public Affairs Committee here: "She needs low-heeled sturdy oxfords made of soft leather and having plenty of toe room. To help her maintain proper balance, even her dress shoes should have broad, low heels."

McCarthy Says County Facing Transit Problem

State Sen. John F. McCarthy f San Rafael predicted today hat "Marin County faces transortation strangulation at the nd of this decade unless we egin planning immediately."

The county must face up to he demands that will be put pon transportation facilities y growth, he said at a noon neeting of the Republican Women's Club of Novato at the Tomahawk Lodge, Novato.

Immediate transportation needs can be taken care of through the creation of a Marin Transit District, McCarthy said. "Governor Brown vetoed the bill creating such a district after the last session of the legislature," he added.

Redevelopment Member Stockstad Is Defended

County Supervisor Peter Behr yesterday sprang to the defense of Harold Stockstad, whom he nominated for membership on the Marin County Redevelopment Agency Commission.

Read to the board of supervisors was a letter from Alton Lerch, chairman of the redevelopment agency, to Stockstad, the vice chairman.

"Your contact with Supervisor Behr caused the supervisors' decision for an exploratory meeting on Nov. 4 covering the progress of Marin City," Lerch wrote Stockstad, sending along a copy to the board. "It would seem that you would at least telephone me of your intentions in respect for my responsibility as chairman of this agency."

He also criticized Stockstad for remarks before groups which he claimed misrepresented the agency's position.

"That's the largest amount of tommyrot put in one letter since I've been on the board," snapped Behr. "Any time any appointee of this board reports at my request, I take it as very poor taste for Mr. Lerch to take this stand."

Chairman William D. Fusselman, who had made no secret of his distaste for Stockstad, commented, "You know my feelings about Mr. Stockstad."

The supervisors have set a meeting with the redevelopment agency for 2 p.m. Nov 4 to discuss slow progress on Marin City redevelopment.

Supervisors Ask Rec Head To Reconsider Resignation

A unanimous vote of four Marin County Supervisors yesterday requested Mrs. William B. Newman of Tiburon to reconsider her resignation as chairman of the Marin County Parks and Recreation Commission.

General discussion brought out a belief that Mrs. Newman might be assured full cooperation between board and commission, as well as adequate commission control over operations of Recreation Director Kelvin J. Nelson.

The board selected 8 p.m., Nov. 15 as time for discussion between board and commission at which it was hoped Mrs. Newman would resume the commission chairmanship.

Informed of this action at her home, Mrs. Newman expressed gratification as well as surprise.

"I thought they'd file and forget," she said. "Certainly this is a development which gives me encouragement at a time when I felt I couldn't justify my existence with the commission."

Chairman William D. Fusselman brought up the subject. He remarked that he had been wondering if the board should ask Mrs. Newman to reconsider.

"I have felt upset about her resignation," agreed Supervisor Peter Behr, whereupon Fusselman suggested that he put his feelings in the form of a motion.

Behr accordingly moved that Mrs. Newman "be asked to reconsider in the hope that problems, which we recognize as very real, may be resolved in the near future. It is recognized that Marin County would suffer a severe loss if her services were terminated."

Supervisor William A. Gnoss was absent but both Supervisors Byron W. Leydecker and George Ludy promptly expressed approval. Ludy said Mrs. Newman's feeling that there was a lack of board cooperation "is not true," but Leydecker said, "I feel that Mrs. Newman has hit on something." He recommended more frequent exchange of ideas with the commission.

Settle down and forget the trouble of house-hunting and the worries of this materialistic era. Your panacea may well be this large family home that has had loving care throughout its 8 beginning years. It's not TAHITI, but children loved it here. They grew up, however, leaving too many of the FOUR bedrooms vacant. In-laws also appreciated living here because they had their own bath, the THIRD, and a living room of their own with the 2nd fireplace. No problems to bother you here as everything is beautifully maintained and the landscaping has been painstakingly nurtured to maturity. A grove of birch sets off the contemporary exterior, inviting you to enjoy the provincial warmth inside provided by brick, beams and satin finished paneling. End your search for a better way of life. Self Esteem Aids In Mother's Love

By DELOS SMITH

NEW YORK (UPI)—An expert look at obstetrics from the viewpoint of psychological science found that the most important source of mother love is the self esteem a woman gets from becoming one.

Dr. Natalie Shainess minimized the pain of chilbirth as "an important factor in the emergence of mother love." Rather, the "entire reproductive experience" contributes to the emergence.

"Obstetricians, husbands and other involved parties should be alert to help the woman "cope successfully and admirably" with this experience from beginning to culmination.

By so helping they assure her of getting a full measure of self esteem from it, she said. She is a psychiatrist and was lecturing other physicians in the technical journal, New York State Medicine.

She specifically endorsed the practice of one obstetrician in requiring husbands to accompany their wives on their mid-pregnancy check-up visits to his office.

Once there the husband is required to use the obstetrician's stethescope to listen to the heart beat of his yet-to-beborn child.

"This simple device, consuming little additional time, calls the husband's attention to the awesome wonder of reproduction, fosters his awareness of his wife's experience, involves him more actively in a positive participation in approaching parenthood, and enhances his wife's feelings of value," said Dr. Shainess.

But she was critical of the common practice of not giving the new mother immediate charge of her infant. This encourages the development of the depression which overtake some women after childbirth, she said.

"From the Darwinian vantage point of perpetuation of the specias, the infant depends for survival on the mother, and nature never intended for the woman to be incapacitated at this time.

"With delivery, she has achieved the goal of her physiologic changes, and of much of her thinking and activity of the previous nine months. She has, at the same time, 'lost purpose' and has not yet become involved in a new goal—that of mothering her child."

From the psychological viewpoint she should be put to this mothering as quickly as possible.

On the presently controversial obstetrical question of whether the husband should be present in the delivery room, she had this to say:

"There are many who feel that a husband who views his wife's suffering is likely to be a better husband and father. This is highly debatable: feelings of guilt are not likely to enhance the capacity to love."

She warned obstetricians that "the problem of the envious, obstetrical nurse is a very real one.

"For some reason, the delivery room often seems to attract nurses with forceful and not too genial personalities. The obstetrical patient is not sick and is at the height of her creative function, the object of concern, especially of her husband, and likely to be plied with gifts. All these factors are likely to bring out whatever envy and competitiveness lies dormant in the personnel."

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

New Treatment for Smallpox Is Called Great Advancement

VAN DELLEN

A new prophylactic treatment of smallpox may be the most important advance in this disease since Edward Jenner (1749-1823) discovered the vaccine. The chemical in question, Morboran, represents more than a decade of research work on the part of British and American scientists This drug reduced the incidence of smallpox 96 per cent in India, where the infection is prevalent.

THE DRUG is aimed at the person who comes into contact with a victim and who is susceptible either because he never was vaccinated or the procedure was done many years ago. Prior to the advent of Marboran, health authorities vaccinated these individuals immediately but all too often this was done too late in the incubation period to prevent the illness. As a result, they were condemned to a severe and possibly fatal attack of smallpox.

Marboran will change all this. A report in The Lancet, a British medical journal, says every smallpox, patient admitted to the infectious disease hospital, Tondiarpet, Madras, India, between February and July of 1963, was questioned about those who came into contact with him after the rash developed.

A TOTAL of 2,227 susceptible persons were found and vaccinated. (Many others were excluded because they had had smallpox or refused to cooperate.) Of the total 1,101 contacts were given Marboran and the remainder were used as controls. All were visited 16 days later to determine what had happened. There were three mild cases of smallpox among the treated group. In contrast, 78 cases occurred with 12 deaths among the 1,126 contacts who had been vaccinated but not treated with Marboran.

The drug appeared to be most effective among contacts who never had been vaccinated. This is fortunate because in some western countries, many persons have not been vaccinated and epidemics have appeared in the last few years. Marboran also is effective when the contact is not detected soon enough for successful revaccination to offer any chance on protection.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

EXERCISE IN HEART TEST

B. R. writes: What shows up on an electrocardiogram while exercising that is not shown on this test while resting?

REPLY

In some persons, especially those with narrowed coronary arteries, changes in certain waves are noted in the electrocardiogram during exercise. This is used as a test in angina pectoris.

SOUTH PACIFIC WORMS

E. L. V. writes: Is there a drug to cure filaria?

REPLY

Yes, if you refer to the most common form of filariasis, usually called elephantiasis. It is confined largely to the far east. This worm infestation is treated with Hetrozan or Caparsolate.

VEINS NOT INVOLVED

T. B. writes: Does smoking harm varicose veins of the legs?

No. But the arteries are constricted by nicotine in a certain percentage of the population.

Foreign Investments Are Slowing Down

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The flow of American investment dollars abroad, especially to the Common Market, is slowing down. Once hailed as a good thing both for the American and European economies, such spending of late has become a warry to those seeking to cut U.S. deficits in world dealings.

WASHINGTON reports that threats of new taxes are holding down sales of foreign securities to Americans keeping such hot money at home and trimming the loss of U.S. dollars and gold.

The big rush of U.S. corporations to build plants overseas appears to have tired. And a larger proportion of such expansion is being financed abroad rather than with additional Yankee dollars.

The auto industry seems to have completed most of its European ventures. The chief remaining increase in spending there now is by U.S. chemical firms. The total of U.S. manufacturing expansion in Western Europe this year is a bit below last year, and American firms tell the U.S. Department of Commerce that next year's spending will be down still more.

Part of the slowdown in American business spending in the Common Market may be due to increased opposition there to what they fear will be American domination of their industries.

But part of the lag may be due to the signs that the big growth in the European economy in recent years is peaking out, too.

Most interesting to Washington monetary officials is that this year the worldwide investments of U.S. manufacturing, petroleum and mining companies is calling for only 16 per cent additional funds financed from U.S. sources. The rest of the cost is being borne by earnings and funds generated abroad by previous U.S. investments there.

This is important just now because the United States is trying to trim the flow of dollars abroad and to raise the influx of funds from abroad. It has been running a deficit for so many years now that the big piles of dollars held by foreigners threaten U.S. gold reserves and could, if the situation should worsen, cast doubts on the value of the dollar.

While the buildup in American investments overseas seem to be slowing now, it is still a sizable figure—an estimated 4.9 billion dollars this year, compared with 3.7 billion dollars in 1959.

If money generated overseas pays the major share of that expenditure, and if other earnings abroad flow back to the United States, American investments could be a minor worry for Washington officials seeking to hold down the net outflow of dollars.

The major problems would be the outlays for foreign economic and military aid and for maintenance of U.S. military forces abroad, plus the danger of any sudden rush of short-term money to more lucrative markets.

First Newsletter For Senior Citizens Out

Richard Phenix, county coordinator for senior citizens activities, announced that the two-page mimeographed sheet will cover activities of older people. "The newsletter will depend on whether senior citizens seem to want it, and whether a reliable system of distribution can be developed."

For the first issue, single copies will be mailed on request, Phenix said. "Write or call the Marin Council of Community Services, 2144 Fourth Street, San Rafael."

"Hopefully some older individuals, or senior citizen clubs in every part of the county will agree to be local representatives, not only to deliver copies through club, church or other meetings, or with the help of a 'friendly store,' but to send news in about senior citizen activities," he added.
